Final (Carpenter was disqualified and the race was ordered to be re-run two days later, in lanes (then termed strings, as strings separated each lane), but without Carpenter. The precise statement was, "The judges have decided that the race is void, and order same to be re-run in strings on Saturday next [25 July], at 12 o'clock. J. C. Carpenter is disqualified." American officials ordered Robbins and Taylor not to take part in the re-run and Britain's Halswelle ran alone to take the Olympic title)
