The Cross-Country Championships, 1926

The Eighteenth Annual Varsity and Seventh Annual Freshman Cross-Country Runs of the Association were held over the I. C. A. A. A. Cross-Country Course at Van Cortandt Park on Monday afternoon, November 22, 1926. The events were favored with unusually fine weather which brought out one of the largest crowds of spectators in the history of the Runs.

The result of the Varsity Run was extremely close and was not known until the score-sheets were carefully digested. Penn State emerged the winner with 65 points beating Syracuse, whose score was 68. Yale was third with 95 and Harvard fourth with 102. William J. Cox of Penn State, a sophomore, was the winner of the Varsity Run by approximately 25 yards from Macauley L. Smith, Yale '27, champion in 1924. His time was 30 mins. and 4 secs. While the Association has never recognized cross-country records, due to the necessity of changing the layout of the course somewhat each year, the fact remains that this is the fastest time for the six miles in the history of the Run and was 30 seconds faster than the previous year's performance which in turn had been 50 seconds better than its predecessor. It is interesting to compare this time with the time of Willie Ritola, 30 mins. 3-5 sec. in winning the National A. A. U. Cross-Country Championship over the same course. While the latter race was run in the face of a wind it was not run over hurdles, as in the I. C. A. A. A. Run, which are in themselves a substantial handicap.

James C. Loucks, Syracuse '27, who failed to attain the championship in 1925 by a yard from Willard L. Tibbets of Harvard, was third, a similar distance behind Smith.

Horace H. Benson, Cornell '29, winner of the freshman race last year, was fourth in 30 mins. 37 secs.

The Varsity Cup has been won four times by both Cornell and Syracuse. Pennsylvania, Manie, Pittsburgh and Penn State have each won the cup once. To remain in the permanent possession of any college the cup must be won five times.

There was a noteworthy smoothness in running the program and in the management of the meet. The inner field was much clearer than usual.

Slow motion pictures were taken of all finishes and of all events with satisfactory results.

The following records were equalled or broken:

High Jump, 6 ft. 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. by Robert W. King, Stanford, '28. Dicus, 151 ft. 3 $\frac{3}{8}$ in by Clarence L. Houser, So. Calif., '26. Pole Vault, 13 ft. 2 in. by Sabin W. Carr, Yale, '28. 100 Yard Dash (Equalling record) 9.7 sec., by Henry A. Russell, Cornell, '26. Shot Put, 49 ft. 11 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. by Clarence L. Houser, So. Calif., '26.

The following interesting table shows the character of the competition as compared with the previous year and the records existing at the time:
