Photos Correct Mistake, Awarded Second Place

NEW YORK, March 6. (U.P.)—Cornell today holds second place in the standings for the I. C. 4-A track meet held Saturday night at Madison Square Garden as result of a revision.

Changes were made when photos taken with the Kirby electrical camera revealed that Robert Liners of Cornell finished fifth instead of sixth in the 50-meter dash and that Charles Pessoni, Manhattan, and Phil Good, Bowdoin, ran a dead heat in the 50-meter hurdles.

Manhattan won the championship with $26\frac{1}{2}$ points, but Cornell moved up to second from fourth under the revision, with $16\frac{1}{2}$ points, ahead of Harvard with 16 and Columbia with 15 2-3.
