Princeton men win IC4A title

STAFF REPORT

NEW YORK — Tony Barroca, who missed last season with a stress fracture of the right leg, won the IC4A men's cross country title yesterday and led Princeton to its first championship at Van Cortlandt Park.

CROSS COUNTRY

Barroca, a senior from Kearney, N.J., was timed in 24 minutes 49 seconds for the five-mile course, as Princeton placed its five runners among the top 17 and finished with 49 points.

Ricardo Santos of Iona was nearly 50 yards back in second place in 24:57, helping the Gaels earn second place with 63 points.

Francis Rono of Virginia Commonwealth was third in 25:02, one second ahead of Princeton's Erik Kean.

In the university division, Monmouth's men finished second among 29 teams with 105 points, 33 behind winner Manhattan.

Josh Horner (25:58) and Felix Olivo (25:59) finished ninth and 10th, respectively, and were named to the All-East team as top 15 finishers. They ran the two fastest times in Monmouth history at the site.

The Rutgers men's team finished ninth, led by junior Leigh Cadigan, who was eighth overall.

Senior Tony Barroca recorded a winning time of 24:48.7 to lead the Princeton men's cross country team to its first IC4A Cross Country title yesterday at Van Cortlandt Park in The Bronx.

The Tigers' first-place total of 49 points was 14 points better than Iona, the 12th-ranked team in the nation.

ROUNDUP

Junior Erik Kean finished in 25:03.4 for fourth place for Princeton.

Rutgers finished ninth with 250 points, led by Leigh Cadigan, who placed eighth overall in a time of 26:00. Sophomore James Smoliga of East Brunswick placed 54th for the Scarlet Knights in 27:06.2.

Seton Hall placed 15th in the race, led by freshman Steve Osaduik's 25:42.8, good for 30th. Junior Anthony DeBenedictis of Roselle Park finished 43rd in 25:58 for the Pirates.
