WHAT HAPPENED IN 1973

Villanova's John Hartnett shaved 4.4 seconds off the University Division record time in capturing individual honors with a time of 24:00.0, but it was Manhattan College which for the second year in a row took home the I.C.A.A.A. Cross Country Championship Cup. Only two of the four Jasper runners who were among the first 14 to finish last year return: Peter Squires (3rd last fall), and Tony Colon (14th). This fact, coupled with strong entries from perennial threat Villanova, Providence College and Georgetown make Manhattan's task of repeating for the third time a formidable one.

Bucknell University placed all five of its top scorers in the top twenty in last year's College Division race to easily outdistance Springfield and Colgate. The win broke the four year domination of the College Division event by Lehigh. Individual honors went to Springfield's Charlie Duggan. Duggan, who will defend his title today, broke the tape in 24:36.6.

In the University Division junior varsity race, Manhattan's Marty Walsh and Harry Kronick finished one-two in enabling the Jaspers to sweep team honors. The College Division junior varsity run was taken by Albany State's Rich Langford. Bucknell, however, annexed the junior varsity team title, as five Bison runners placed in the first 11 finishers. Once again, this fall's junior varsity event will be a non-championship event, although it will be scored.

I.C.A.A.A. CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP CUP

Cornell University won the inaugural I.C.A.A.A. championship trophy in 1913 with five victories in six years. It took twenty-three meets before Michigan State captured the second trophy in 1937. Michigan State also retired the third championship cup in 1957 with a record of five triumphs in 1948, 1952, 1953, 1956 and 1957. The fourth cup went to Villanova, winner in 1962, 1966, 1967, 1968 and 1969. The fifth cup went into competition in 1970. Villanova and Manhattan both have two legs on the cup.
