RIVERDALE, NY (November 17, 2001) - Junior Matt Spring (Marcy, NY) ran a personal best time of 25.04 this morning to win the IC4A Individual Championship at Van Cortlandt Park (5 miles). Spring's individual title was the first for a Jasper runner at the IC4A meet since 1972 when Irish Olympian Mike Keogh took home the crown. Spring, who won the individual title by two seconds over St. Joseph's Ben Koch, led the Jaspers to an eighth place finish in the team competition.

Junior Andres Cordero (Little Falls, NJ) also ran a personal best finishing 12th with a time of 25.33. Freshman Dan McGrath (Lynbrook, NY) placed 49th in a time of 26.04, sophomore Gavin Cosgrove (Kingston, Ontario) came in 82nd in a time of 26.27, and senior Jeff Clark (Bogota, NJ) finished 101st in a time of 26.48.
