REVIEW OF VARSITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Last year Manhattan triumphed in the Varsity I.C.A.A.A. run with a score of 86 points, with Syracuse, second; and Army, third. Rhode Island's Bob Black won the individual championship in 25:37.1.

Cornell with nine championship teams is well out in front in total team victories since the inaugural I.C.A.A.A. race was held back in 1908 at Princeton. Michigan State is second with five, while Manhattan, Penn State and Syracuse each have four.

I.C.A.A.A. CROSS COUNTRY COURSES

1948 FRESHMAN CHAMPIONSHIP RACE (THREE MILES)

To be run over the Freshman course, indicated on the map by the solid line with distance points designated by triangular marks. The course is marked at frequent intervals by distance points and direction signs, all Red in color.

Freshman competitors should follow the Red signs from the start of the race to the finish, which is at the southwest corner of the parade grounds as shown above.

1948 VARSITY CHAMPIONSHIP RACE (FIVE MILES)

To be run over the varsity course, as shown above. The race's first lap is indicated on the map by the dot-and-dash line and by stars (★). This course is marked at frequent intervals by distance posts and direction signs, all Red in color. The second lap of the race is indicated on the map by the dotted line and by large dots (●). Its permanent distance posts and direction signs are Blue in color.

Varsity competitors should follow Red signs from the start of the race for approximately three miles and they should follow Blue signs for the remaining two miles to the finish line, which is in Van Cortlandt Stadium, Broadway and 242nd Street, as shown above.
