Georgetown Women's Track and Field Program Continues to Build on a Tradition of Excellence

The Georgetown University women's track & field team has become synonymous with the word excellence. Since the arrival of Ron Helmer 15 years ago, the Hoyas have enjoyed tremendous success, both on the regional and national level. Helmer has coached NCAA Champions Joline Staeheli (mile) and Miesha Marzell (1500-meters), two NCAA distance medley relay champions, as well as four Penn Relays Championship of America teams. Georgetown has produced 20 individual ECAC Indoor champions and nine relay champions. In addition, Helmer's teams have won four ECAC Indoor titles, including the 2000 Championship. The Hoyas enter the 2001 ECAC Championships with the momentum of winning their fifth BIG EAST Indoor Championship on February 18.

Georgetown, currently tied for 16th in the nation, will be without track standouts Katrina de Boer and Autumn Fogg as the Hoyas attempt to defend their 2000 team title. de Boer, a six-time All-American and the 1998 ECAC Indoor 800-meter champion, graduated last May, while senior distance runner Autumn Fogg, a four-time All-American, is red-shirting the 2000-01 indoor season. Sprinters Sasha Spencer and Tyrona Heath, and distance runners Marni Kruppa, Emily Enstice and Erin Sicher will lead a deep and very talented Georgetown squad.

Senior Sasha Spencer, a five-time All-American, is enjoying a tremendous 2001 indoor season. Spencer enters the ECAC Championships after winning her third-consecutive BIG EAST Indoor 500-meter title with a new Conference record of 1:10.55 on February 18 in Syracuse, N.Y. She also anchored the winning BIG EAST 4 x 400-meter relay team and placed third in the 200-meters. Junior Tyrona Heath clocked 2:13.10 in the finals of the league championship to take fourth place in the 800-meter run, however, she ran her fastest time of the season on January 27 with an NCAA provisional qualifying mark of 2:08.75.

Sophomore Marni Kruppa, who earned her first All-American honors in cross country this past season, has turned in several outstanding performances in the 3000 and 5000-meters. Kruppa finished second in the 3000 at the Penn State National Open with an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 9:27.49. Kruppa then cruised to victory in the 5000 at the BIG EAST Indoor Championship with an NCAA-qualifying time of 16:27.93 for her first conference title. Emily Enstice is making the most of her senior year. Like Kruppa, Enstice is qualified provisionally in both the 3000 and 5000-meter runs. Enstice ran 16:41.37 to take third place in the 5000 at the BIG EAST Indoor Championships. Her best mark this season is 9:35.47, recorded on February 10. Sophomore Erin Sicher garnered her first All-American certificate during her freshman year by running a leg on GU's distance medley relay squad that placed fifth at the 2000 NCAA Indoor Championships.

Sicher raced to a second-place finish in the mile run at the BIG EAST Championships with a mark of 4:51.74. Sicher posted her fastest time in the mile this season at the USTCA Collegiate Invitational at Penn State when she won with a NCAA provisional qualifying 4:46.05.

Georgetown will also look to senior Nickay Penado, sophomores Jamillah Bowman and Jill Laurendeau, as well as freshman Kori Hamilton to step up in the relay events for the Hoyas. Penado and Bowman are two-time All-Americans in the 4 x 400-meter relay who hope to enable GU to defend its 2000 ECAC Indoor 4 x 400 title. Both, along with Hamilton, ran legs on the Hoyas' squad that won the 2000 BIG EAST 4 x 400 title with a new conference meet record of 3:39.89. Laurendeau ran the lead-off leg on a DMR squad that claimed runner-up honors at the 2001 BIG EAST championships with a time of 11:34.59. Laurendeau, Penado, Spencer and Sicher combined to win the event at the Penn State National Open with an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 11:25.89.

When the final event has ended and the points have been tallied, Georgetown hopes to add a fifth ECAC Indoor Track & Field Championship trophy to its coffers. With Spencer, Heath, Kruppa, Enstice and Sicher leading the way, the chances are great that the goal will become a reality.

Georgetown's 2000 ECAC title, fourth in seven years

Contact: ECAC Public Relations

CENTERVILLE, Mass. -- Georgetown University captured the Eastern College Athletic Conference Division I Women's Indoor Track & Field Championship this past Sunday, March 5, 2000, at the Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center in Roxbury, Massachusetts.

This marks the fourth time since 1994 that the Hoyas have walked away with the team trophy. After 18 of 20 events, West Virginia had an eight-point lead over Georgetown, but the meet was far from over. Four determined Georgetown runners (Sasha Spencer, Nickay Penado, Carron Allen, and Tyrone Heath) stormed onto the track to run an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 3:38.28 in the 4x400-meter relay, en route to grabbing first place. Up by a scant two points with the final event to go, the 4x800-meter relay team of Katrina de Boer, Erin Sicher, Heather Blackard, and Autumn Fogg followed their teammates lead in winning this event and securing the team title.

A multitude of NCAA provisional qualifying times and distances were set in addition to several automatic marks and two new meet records. Aliann Pompey of Manhattan College broke the old meet record in the 500-meter run by nearly a full second with a winning time of 1:09.23, earning her Performer of the Meet honors. This time is also the fastest 500 time ever recorded by a female collegiate athlete. A new pole vault standard of 12'5.5" was reached by both Jillian Schwartz of Duke and Erin Nett of West Virginia. The win was given to Schwartz, based on fewer overall misses throughout the competition.

Georgetown's Autumn Fogg won the mile in an NCAA provisional qualifying time of 4:45.32, while her teammates Marni Kruppa, Emily Enstice, Kathleen Linck and Lorena Adams took places one through four, respectively, in the 5000-meter run. West Virginia received ten key points from Merissa Sexsmith in the 1000-meter run (2:49.08), Stacian Brown in the 200-meter dash (23.95) and Christine Brown in the triple jump (42'6"). Seton Hall, third overall gained 18 points from the 60-meter hurdles from champion, Erica Bloomfield (7.35) and runner-up, Nolle Graham (7.43). Graham was also victorious in the long jump, with a NCAA automatic qualifying leap of 20'11.75," and runner-up in the 200-meters (24.20). Charmaine Walker and Carmen Douma, both of Villanova, turned in provisional times in winning the 60-meter hurdles (8.19) and 800-meter run (2:08.47), respectively. A pair of Connecticut throwers, Bethany Hart (59'9.5") and Melissa Houston (59'8.5"), went one-two in the 20-pound weight event.

Other noteworthy individual performances included, Brown sophomore Amber Knighten in the shot put (50'9.5"), Tasha Peart from Pittsburgh in the 400-meter run (53.70), Vanessa Jones of Maryland in the high jump (5'11.75"), and Boston College senior Shannon Smith in the 3000-meter run (9:31.64). The distance medley relay team of Halle Watson, Catherine Regan, Grace Nwoku and Kim Chatman earned ten points for Cornell and secured a provisional qualifying time of 11:28.51. Gabrielle Deshong, a senior from Virginia Commonwealth University, won the pentathlon with a score of 3775.
