WHAT HAPPENED IN 1975

While Penn's Dave Merrick was touring the five-mile Van Cortlandt Park layout in the record time of 23:51, Northeastern University (with 57 points) was eagerly putting away its first-ever IC4A cross country title by easing past Heptagonal champion Princeton (85 points) and New England champ Providence (113 points).

Merrick, who had ten days earlier taken the Heptagonal individual title, shaved nine seconds off the IC4A record established by Villanova's John Hartnett in 1973. The Penn senior closed out his brilliant cross country career by duplicating the rare Heptagonal-IC4A cross country individual title sweep accomplished by Army's Dennis Trujillo the year before.

Northeastern, which had finished second to Providence in the New Englands, saved its best for the IC's. John Flora was the first Husky across the finish line (4th place) in 24:28, followed by teammates Bruce Bickford (7th), Robert Flora (8th), Michael Buckley (an adjusted 12th) and Ken Flanders (an adjusted 26th). Bickford and the Flora brothers return for the Northeastern defense of the title.

In the College Division race, Bucknell made its last CD race a winning effort, placing all five scorers among the first 11 finishers. Robert Braile of Bucknell took the individual crown in a time of 25:21.8. Teammate Dan Davis placed second, with Lou Calvano taking fourth, George Buckheit ninth, and Larry Hager eleventh. This year the Bisons move up to the University Division level. Lehigh, a perennial contender, took the silver trophy, followed by West Chester, Colgate and Albany State.

I.C.A.A.A.A. CROSS COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIP CUP

Cornell University won the inaugural I.C.A.A.A.A. championship trophy in 1913 with five victories in six years. It took twenty-three meets before Michigan State captured the second trophy in 1937. Michigan State also retired the third championship cup in 1957, with a record of five triumphs in 1948, 1952, 1953, 1956 and 1957. The fourth cup went to Villanova, winner in 1962, 1966, 1967, 1968, and 1969. The fifth cup went into competition in 1970. Villanova and Manhattan both have two legs on the cup.
