FDU's title was right on schedule

By RUTH BONAPACE

PRINCETON — Coach Russ Rogers says Fairleigh Dickinson University's first IC4A indoor track and field championship was right on schedule.

"Believe it or not, I had set a goal to win it in my third year," said Rogers, who came to Fairleigh Dickinson in 1979 after a decade at Newark's Essex County College.

In the 61st edition of the meet, which ended Sunday at Princeton University's Jadwin Gym, the Knights finished with 56 points, almost all of them in running events.

Villanova, which has been the IC4A champion 17 times since 1957, finished second in the 19-event competition with 47 points. Maryland, last year's winner, was third with 43 1-3.

The Knights were led by Ephraim Serrette of Trinidad, with his second IC4A victory in the 55-meter dash. They got second-place finishes from Clyde Edwards of Barbados in the 400 meters, Olivers Alves of Guyana in the 500, Jama Aden of Somalia in the 1,000, and Solomon Chebor of Kenya in the 3,000.

Rogers credited this year's championship to better performances in the classroom.

"THE TEAM HAS always been there," Rogers said, "but they needed a 2.0 (grade point average) each semester.

"That's been my biggest problem. But I don't think the school is going to change its policy. My first year here, we had seven academically ineligible athletes, three last year and two this year."

Fairleigh Dickinson's best previous finish in this meet was second, where it placed each of the past two years.

Serrette, who won the 1979 dash title as a freshman, regained the crown with a narrow 6.32-second victory over Big East champion Michael Morris of Syracuse, who ran 6.33.

"I wasn't scared of anyone," Serrette said. "I'm an experienced runner."

The Knights got a third from Richard Ouma of Kenya in the 800 meters, a third from its distance medley relay team, anchored by Chebor, and a fifth-place finish from Randy Smith of Camden in Friday's pentathlon.

"Chebor was the key," said Rogers. "If he hadn't placed second in the 3,000 meters and run in the distance medley relay, we would have been gone."

Villanova's Rodney Wilson won the hurdles for the third straight year in 7.26 seconds, breaking the 7.28 meet record he set last year.

Five other IC4A indoor records also were shattered.

NAVY'S LEO WILLIAMS took the high jump at 7 feet 4½ inches, erasing the mark of 7-2¾ he had set in 1981.

"It wasn't easy," Williams said. "I was worried coming out here. I didn't have a real good week at practice. And this morning, I got out here early and my run was inconsistent."

Villanova's John Hunter won the 1,000 meter in 2:22.27, clipping .22 off the meet record established last year.

Morgan State's Ed Yearwood captured the 400 in 47.24, bettering the 1981 record set by Seton Hall's Mike Paul and Villanova's Carlton Young.

Providence's Ray Treacy won the 5,000 in 14:02.73, breaking the old mark of 14:02.88, set by Sydney Maree of Villanova in 1980.

Seton Hall's Derrick Peynado, who took the 500 in 1:02.10, sliced .06 off the mark set by Navy's Jeff Colvin in 1980.

C.W. Post's Frank Alston took his fifth IC4A triple jump title at 52-4. Alston, a senior who has one more semester of eligibility, said he's aiming for six titles before he graduates.

"I GOT ONE MORE chance at the outdoor title," said Alston, who now has three indoor and two outdoor IC4A victories. "I hope to make it six. I guess I gear my training toward this meet."

Other winners included: Sosthenes Bitok of Richmond in the 1,500 in 3:43.76; Henry Kimallel of Richmond in the 800 in 1:49.6; Georgetown's John Gregorek in the 3,000 in 8:06.8; Rhode Island's Mark Strawderman in the pole vault at 16-8¾; Boston University's Art McDermott in the shotput at 63-2; Georgetown in the distance medley relay in 9:49.5; Morgan State in the mile relay in 3:14.46, and Penn State in the two-mile relay in 7:30.74.

C.W. Post's Frank Alston took his fifth IC4A triple jump title at 52-4. Alston, a senior who has one more semester of eligibility, said he's aiming for six titles before he graduates.

"I got one more chance at the outdoor title," said Alston, who now has three indoor and two outdoor IC4A victories. "I hope to make it six. I guess I gear my training toward this meet."

Other winners included: Sosthenes Bitok of Richmond in the 1,500 in 3:43.76; Henry Kimalel of Richmond in the 800 in 1:49.6; Georgetown's John Gregorek in the 3,000 in 8:06.8; Rhode Island's Mark Strawderman in the pole vault at 16-8¾; Boston University's Art McDermott in the shotput at 63-2; Georgetown in the distance medley relay in 9:49.5; Morgan State in the mile relay in 3:14.46, and Penn State in the two-mile relay in 7:30.74.

Men's Track. Johnny Perez placed fifth in the 1,000-yard run with a school record time of 2:13.07, and Victor Rodriguez placed fourth in the mile in 4:12.53 to lead Farmingdale to a 13th-place finish among 36 teams competing in the National Junior College Indoor Track Championships at the University of Illinois. Rodriguez broke Randy Williams' record of 2:13.81, which was set Friday.

All-America Frank Alston set a school record and placed third in the triple jump with a leap of 24-5¼ in the IC4A Track Championships at Princeton University. In the 1,000 meter semifinals, Walter Dobkowski placed third for Post in 2:25.56, also setting a school record. Post's distance medley relay team of Steve Delucie, Don Lee, Dennis Turnman and Harry Penn placed fourth in 10:05.97 and qualified for the today's finals.

Yearwood, Williams set IC4A marks

Princeton, N.J.—Ed Yearwood of Morgan State and Leo Williams of Navy accounted for two of the six meet records shattered on the final day, and Fairleigh Dickinson placed in seven events in capturing its first team title in the 61st annual indoor IC4A track and field championships yesterday.

Yearwood lowered the 400-meter time to 47.24 seconds, and Williams raised the meet standard to 7 feet 4½ inches in the high jump at Princeton University's Jadwin Gym.

FDU, whose Ephriem Serrette, from Trinidad, accounted for the team's only first place with a 6.32 clocking for the 55-meter dash, finished with 56 points, followed by Villanova (47), defending champion Maryland (43½), Richmond (31) and a tie between Mount St. Mary's and Seton Hall (30). Morgan State was 10th with 24 points, and Navy had 10 points.

Yearwood first anchored Morgan's mile relay to a semifinal clocking of 3 minutes 17.78 seconds, although Guy Goodwin broke the race open with the fastest 400, 48.3. An hour and 15 minutes later, Yearwood was back with his victory, his second in the event in the last three years, having previously won while at the University of New Haven in 1980. Another hour later, Goodwin again broke the relay open with the day's fastest split (47.8).

(7.35). He was sixth a year ago in 7.47.

Defending champion Carleton Young of Villanova had been expected to set the pace, but he was hurting from Saturday's events and was never a factor, finishing fourth behind Clyde Edwards of FDU and Jeff White of Mount St. Mary's.

"It was a tough race," Yearwood said of the 400. "I knew Young would take it out, but he let up and then I waited for Edwards to slow down." Yearwood, a junior from Stratford, Conn., took charge entering the final turn of the 200-meter Tartan track, and held off a late rush to win by 5 yards. Edwards was timed in 47.44, and White 47.85.

"Coming off the 200, Young slowed down, so I went by him and went with the others," White said later. "I feel much better than I did yesterday [Saturday]. I was concentrating more and wasn't dragging the way I was before."

Williams, a junior, raised his meet record from the 7-2¾ of last year. He had no misses through 7-3, then made 7-4½ on his third attempt. He failed three times at 7-5½, a mark he cleared two weeks ago against Army, and a quarter-inch higher than his winning NCAA indoor mark of last year. He will defend that title this week in the Silverdome in Pontiac, Mich.

"It wasn't easy. Last week wasn't a good week for practice, because of mid-term exams. The records are nice, but my only concern was to get this one higher," Williams said.

Maryland missed a shot at second place in the team standings when Darryl Bryant pulled a muscle and dropped out on the second leg of the mile relay. Maryland scorers yesterday included a 2-3-5 finish in the pole vault with Dennis Lentz, who lost out on misses after tying at the winning height, 16-8¾, Vince Reilly (16-5) and Joe Petrillo (16-1). Bob Smith, of

Bernard Pleasant led off in 48.8, followed by Goodwin, Mitch Lovett, 48.6, and Yearwood, cruising in 49.0. The winning time was 3:14.46. Morgan's other 4 points came from Jack Pierce's fourth place in the hurdles

Westminster, was fourth in the high jump (6-10 $\frac{1}{4}$), Martin Davis (49-5) and Ward Wilson (49-1) were 4-6 in the triple jump, while Greg Rowe was fifth in the shot (54-4) and Per Kristoffersen fifth in the 1,500 (3:50.48).

Mounts' Olsen captures pentathlon in IC4A

Princeton, N.J. (Special)—Gudmund Olsen of Mount St. Mary's College captured the IC4A pentathlon championship yesterday, totaling 4,089 points to surpass his collegiate record of 3,980 points, but falling just shy of the world mark of 4,100 points.

Olsen, a senior from Norway, had career bests in the long jump (23 feet 6 $\frac{3}{4}$) and the shot put (53-11) as the five-event competition unfolded in Jadwin Gym on the Princeton University campus. His other performances were 7.8 seconds in the 55-meter hurdles, 6-6 $\frac{3}{4}$ in the high jump and 2 minutes 45.9 seconds for 1,000 meters.

Olsen missed a world-record total when the electronic timer malfunctioned, and he lost points on the backup hand timing. In addition, he cleared 6-foot-8 $\frac{3}{4}$ in the high jump, then dislodged the bar with an exuberant display of jumping in the pit after making the height.

Mount St. Mary's also placed 2-3 for a first-day lead of 24 points in these annual eastern indoor track and field championships. Bob Stebbins was second, (3,886 points) and Trond Skramstad was third (3,884). Stebbins won the high jump with an indoor best of 6-10 $\frac{3}{4}$ and a career best of 42-11 $\frac{1}{2}$ in the shot put. Skramstad had career bests in the long jump (23 $\frac{1}{2}$) and shot put (44-7). Vince Reilly gave defending team champion Maryland its first points with a fourth (3,774 points), followed by Randy Smith of Fairleigh Dickinson (3,755) and Carl Quitzan of Northeastern (3,650 points).

Olsen leads Mount in IC4A meet

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Fairleigh Dickinson University, led by Ephraim Serrette's second victory in the 55-meter dash, won its first IC4A indoor track and field championship Sunday.

In the 61st edition of the meet, held at Princeton University's Jadwin Gym, the Knights accumulated 56 points in the 19-event competition. They scored virtually all their points in running events.

Villanova, which has been the IC4A champion 17 times since 1957, finished second with 47 points. Maryland, last year's winner, was third with 43 1-3.

Mount St. Mary's College got a sweep in the pentathlon Friday to finish a strong fifth, just one point behind Richmond. Senior Gudmund Olsen fell just 11 points shy of the world's record for the pentathlon as he scored 4,089 points to take the championship and reset the collegiate record he previously held at 3,980.

With career bests in the long jump and shot put, Olsen assaulted the world mark of 4,100 points held by England's Daley Thompson, the reigning Olympic decathlon gold medalist.

Olsen's point total was hurt in hurdles when the accutrack timer broke down and he lost points on the backup hand timing. He also missed his shot at the world record when he high jumped 6-8 3/4 but knocked the bar off with his exuberant celebrational jumping in the pit after the clearance.

Mount teammate Bob Stebbins was second in the pentathlon competition with 3,885 points and Mountaineer Trond Skramstad was third with 3,884.

The final Mount points of the championships were gained by quarter-miler Jeff White who finished third in the event with a time of 47.85 behind Ed Yearwood's winning 47.24.

Fairleigh Dickinson's best previous finish in this meet was second, where they placed each of the past two years.

Serrette, who had won the dash title as a freshman in 1979, regained the crown with a narrow victory over Syracuse's Michael Morris, the Big East champion. Serrette was timed in 6.32 seconds, and Morris in 6.33.

"I wasn't scared of anyone," said the confident Serrette, a native of Trinidad. "I'm an experienced runner."

The talented, foreign-dominated Knights, coached by Russ Rogers, also got second place finishes from Clyde Edwards of Barbados in the 400 meters, Oliver Alves of Guyana in the 500, Jama Aden of Somalia in the 1,000, and Solomon Chebor of Kenya in the 3,000.

They also got a third from Richard Ouma of Kenya in the 800 meters, a third from its distance medley relay team, anchored by Chebor, and a fifth-place finish from Randy Smith of Camden, N.J., in Friday's pentathlon.

Fairleigh Dickinson's chances appeared to suffer a serious setback Saturday when Smith had to withdraw from the finals of the long jump because of a pulled left hamstring. Smith had to pass his final two attempts in that event and was scratched from Sunday's semifinals in the 55-meter hurdles.

"Chebor was the key," said Rogers. "If he hadn't placed second in the 3,000 meters and run in the distance medley relay, we would have been gone."

The hurdles race was won for the third consecutive year by Villanova's Rodney Wilson in 7.26 seconds, a tenth of a second ahead of Tommie Nnakwe of Seton Hall. Wilson's time broke the meet record of 7.28 that he had set last year.

Five other IC4A indoor records also were shattered.

Navy's Leo Williams took the high jump for the second consecutive year at 7 feet 4 1/2 inches, erasing the mark of 7-2 3/4 he had set in 1981.

Villanova's John Hunter won the 1,000 meter in 2:22.27, clipping .22 off the meet record established last year.

Morgan State's Ed Yearwood captured the 400 in 47.24, bettering the meet record set last year by Villanova's Carlton Young and Seton Hall's Mike Paul. Young finished a disappointing sixth this time in 48.55.

Providence's Ray Treacy won the 5,000 in 14:02.73, breaking the old mark of 14:02.88, set by Sydney Maree of Villanova in 1980.

The final meet record was set by Seton Hall's Derrick Peynado, who took the 500 in 1:02.10, slicing .06 off the mark set by Navy's Jeff Colvin in 1980.

Other winners included: Sosthenes Bitok of Richmond in the 1,500 in 3:43.76; Henry Kimalel of Richmond in the 800 in 1:49.6; Georgetown's John Gregorek in the 3,000 in 8:06.8; Rhode Island's Mark Strawderman in the pole vault at 16-8 3/4; C.W. Post's Frank Alston in the triple jump at 52-4; Boston University's Art McDermott in the shotput at 63-2; Georgetown in the distance medley relay in 9:49.5; Morgan State in the mile relay in 3:14.46, and Penn State in the two-mile relay in 7:30.74.

Lehigh's Ken Jones placed eighth in a 15-man field pentathlon in the IC4A indoor track and field championships held at Princeton University yesterday. Jones scored 3,522, which was below his school-record and I.C.4.A. qualifying mark of 3,696 set earlier this year.

The event — which includes the high hurdles, long jump, shot put, high jump and 1,000-meter run — was captured by Mount Saint Mary's Gudmund Olsen. Olsen scored 4,089 points to win.

Jones' best events were the high jump (6-4³/₄, a seasonal best), the shot put (39-5¹/₄, a personal best), and the 1,000-meters (where he was third overall with a time of 2:43.4).

Jones and former Parkland athlete Rusty Fulford will both compete in the long jump today, and East Coast Conference champion Larry Merchadante will go after honors in the triple jump.

RU's Casey, Westman in IC4A finals

By MARK FRAZIER

PRINCETON — Jim Casey, Jim Westman and Rich Lippert lead a host of Rutgers athletes in qualifying for the finals of the IC4A Track Meet at Jadwin Gym. Going into today's finals, the Scarlet Knights have five opportunities to place and score points for the overall team title.

Casey will be facing the likes of NCAA champion Solomon Chebor and John Gregorek of Georgetown in the final of the 3,000 meter run. Casey won his heat yesterday in an easy 8:20.81 effort to take a spot in the final.

Bill Borden of Southern Connecticut State College took some of the spotlight away from Rutgers. Borden set a new NCAA record with a toss of 67-8¼ in the 35-pound weight throw. Alan Baginski of Maryland, last year's champion, finished second with a throw of 65-9.

Westman and Lippert qualified for the finals of the 1,000 meter run. Westman took the lead with two laps to go, and Lippert, who was running in the same heat, pulled even with his teammate at the gun lap. Westman won the heat in 2:27.02 and Lippert was second with 2:27.25.

Rutgers fared well in the sprints as Kevin Ellis, Elliot Quow and Reynald Welbrook qualified for the semifinals of the 55-meter dash. Quow had the second fastest time of the day with a 6.39 second clocking.

The quartet of Mark Fickey, Clayton Lloyd, Leonard Cancel and Quow made the semifinals of the mile relay by placing second in their heat with a 3:18.88 behind Morgan State. Rutgers will face powerhouses Seton Hall, Villanova and Fairleigh Dickinson in the semifinals.

Princeton's mile relay team of Tim Pfitzer, Rob Bryant, Peter Ardwin and Ken Bruce won the fourth heat in 3:21.3 and will also be in the semifinals.

In the only other final, Greg Bell of Notre Dame won a closely-contested long jump with a leap of 24-6.

On Friday, Mount St. Mary's swept the first three places of the pentathlon to earn 24 points and an early lead in the overall team scoring. Gudmond Olsen set a new collegiate record with 4,089 points, well ahead of teammates Bob Stebbins and Trond Shamstad.

Princeton showed its strength in the distance events. Bernie Costello and Matt Farmer narrowly finished fourth in their respective heats to advance to the finals of the 3,000 meter run, while Gordon Chrisie took third in his heat of the 5,000 meter run to get a spot in the final.

All-American cross-country runner Jack Fonss of Princeton coasted to an easy second place 3:51.44 in his heat of the 1,500 meter run. Ross Donoghue of Villanova and Sosthenes Bitok of Richmond are Fonss' main competition in the final.

In the overall team scoring, Mount St. Mary's leads with 24 points. Maryland is second with 16 while Notre Dame and Southern Connecticut State are tied for third with 10 points each.

Bill Borden of Southern Connecticut State gets off a winning toss in the 35-pound weight throw at the IC4A meet.

Wilson leads Villanova in IC4A qualifying heats

By Gordon Forbes
Inquirer Staff Writer

PRINCETON, N.J. — A cold rain drenched Palmer Stadium yesterday, the kind of dreary afternoon that a hurdler like Rod Wilson has learned to dread.

Since his freshman year at Villanova, Wilson has been running away from nagging groin problems that affect his lift and drive between hurdles. It was that way yesterday when Wilson ignored a minor groin pull to qualify for today's 110-meter finals by winning his heat in 14.3 seconds.

"I just get a little tough and run with it," said Wilson, standing under a souvenir tent as the rain pounded the synthetic track and a sprinkling of track fanatics at yesterday's soggy IC4A championships. "I was pretty down when I saw the weather. But sometimes you just have to go out there and do it. I ran 13.74 at the Martin Luther King Games in the same kind of weather."

Gene Norman, a highly competitive rival from Rutgers, says Wilson should have his kind of problems. Hardly had the track season started when Norman and most of his teammates staged a meet boycott to protest the coaching policies of Les Wallack.

Rutgers eventually changed coaches and a relaxed Norman was out there yesterday, gliding through the raindrops to match Wilson's time of 14.3 in another heat. "Terrible," said Norman. "The weather's terrible. I don't like it at all."

"It hurts your concentration. It's hard to keep your mind on the race. You try to forget it and just go out and run. So far, my season has been just average. We had some problems with the team and the bad weather."

"But from what I can see, everything is back together. I see us as strong as we were before as a team. If everything goes right, it [an IC4A team title] is a possibility for us."

Norman ran the race of his life in a loaded IC4A field last year to upset Wilson in meet record time, 13.74 to 13.77. Norman calls it "the best racing day I ever had." Recalls Norman, "I got out slow and saw Rodney and Tommie [Seton Hall's Tommie Nnakwe] ahead of me. At the end, Rodney was right there at the last hurdle. I just beat him to the finish line."

Unknown to Norman, Wilson was fighting another groin injury. "I had a very intense groin injury that day," said Wilson. "I got to the TAC meet and I could hardly run. At the NCAAs, it was hard for me to get over the first hurdle. I ran 13.77 [against Norman]. That's not too bad."

"I shouldn't have run at the NCs. But I'm a competitor. It would take my leg falling off before I realize I should stop."

Villanova will need that kind of competitive fire to win what looms as one of the most wide-open IC4A meets in recent memory. The Wildcats were parading into the finals just as coach Charlie Jenkins had it figured on paper until freshman John Marshall suddenly was knocked out of the 800-meter race.

After running an eased up 1:51.3 in his heat, Marshall got caught in a late traffic jam from which he escaped too late (1:52.2) to qualify for a spot in today's talented final.

Villanova's Mike England did make the final, in 1:49.4.

Other Villanova qualifiers included Marcus O'Sullivan, Ross Donoghue and John Hunter in the 1,500; Jim Adams in the 400; Carlton Young in the 200; Craig Morris in the intermediate hurdles; and the 400-meter relay team.

O'Sullivan kicked to the lead just before the bell and eased up in the final 25 meters to finish in 3:48.7, just behind Richmond's Sos Bitok, the indoor champ. Donoghue also jogged in behind Georgetown's John Gregorek in 3:48.5 after driving to the lead with 400 meters left. Hunter, running in the fastest heat, escaped a mid-race box when the field spread and coasted in third (3:45.1) behind winner Per Kristoffersen, a Maryland sophomore from Norway.

Defender Declan Hegarty of Boston University repeated in the hammer throw, reaching 207 feet, 5 3/4 inches. In a much closer shot put, Princeton junior Augie Wolf, a 6-7, 273-pound intimidator, edged Boston University's Art McDermott by a quarter inch, 61-3 to 61-2 3/4. McDermott took the lead on his first throw but Wolf overcame him on his next-to-last toss in a reversal of their indoor finish.

Charlie Bevier of Syracuse won the 10,000-meter run in 28:53.6, breaking the IC4A record of 29:01.3 set in 1979 by Villanova's Amos Korir. Maryland's Ward Wilson captured the long jump with a modest leap of 23-11, nearly a foot and a half under his season's best.

Finally, George Mason University qualified for the saddest story of the meet. The Virginia school was bounced out of the 1,600-meter relay after it failed to turn in an entry card.

Said Tim Baker, the chief clerk of the course: "They said they had given their card to the state police in time. Apparently they had an accident on the way up and used the card to write on for identification."

The story was intriguing, but it didn't hold up with IC4A officials.

Beamon Leaps to IC4A Track Finals

PRINCETON — Glassboro State College's Bob Beamon took a fourth place Saturday in the IC4A Track Championships at Princeton University.

Beamon, who leaped 23 feet, 4 inches, qualified for today's finals in the 110-meter high hurdles. He was clocked in 14.4 seconds. Teammate Garry Moore qualified in 14.5.

The Profs' 1,600 relay team (Anthony Stone, Jim Thompson, Nick Kenney and Willie Lawson) qualified for the finals. Pete Sharpless of Glassboro made it to the finals of the high jump with a 6-10 $\frac{1}{4}$.

Manhattan's Peterson upset in 10,000 meter

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Charlie Bevier, a senior from Syracuse, wore down favored Pat Peterson of Manhattan to win the 10,000-meter race Saturday in the 106th IC4A Outdoor Track and Field Championships at rain-drenched Palmer Stadium.

IC4A

Bevier, the fifth-place finisher last year who came into the race with a best-time this year four seconds slower than Peterson was clocked in a meet record 28 minutes, 58.5 seconds in winning the final running event on the program.

In field event finals, Declan Hegarty of Boston University took the hammer throw title for the second straight year, with a heave of 207 feet, 6 inches; August Wolf of Princeton, runner-up in the shot put last year, won this time at 61-3, and Ward Wilson of Maryland captured the long jump at 23-11.

Bevier's time cracked the meet record of 29:01.3, set in 1979 by Amos Korir of Villanova. Bevier's performance was even more remarkable in view of the treacherous track conditions. An all-day rain drenched the stadium and made footing extremely hazardous.

Petersen, 22, from Islip, N.Y., runs with an unorthodox upper body sway and his arm swing is contrary to the accepted norm. But Manhattan Coach Fred Dwyer has not tinkered with Petersen's style, deciding to leave well enough alone.

Peterson also has been blind in his right eye since birth and took up running only after being banned from contact sports in junior high school because of his defect.

Meanwhile, Hegarty, a junior from Ireland, said he was pleased at repeating as hammer throw champion, but not satisfied with his performance.

"I wanted to reach 220 (feet)," he said. "But I felt sluggish today. Perhaps it was the weather. I threw 218-2 last week at the New England Championships. I was hoping for better today."

Wolf, a 6-6, 265-pound junior from St. Paul, Minn., also was hoping for a better effort in the shot put.

"I would have been happier if I had thrown 19.50 meters (nearly 64 feet) and McDermott runner-up Art McDermott of Boston University) had thrown 19.51," said Wolf.

The biggest surprise of the day was the failure of John Marshall, Villanova's highly touted freshman, to advance to Sunday's 800 final. He was eliminated in the semifinals, finishing fifth in his heat.

Marshall's ouster dealt a damaging blow to Villanova's chance of unseating Maryland as team champion.

After Saturday's four finals plus the decathlon, completed Friday, and won by Maryland's Vince Reilly, the Terrapins led the team competition with 25 points. Boston University and Princeton were tied for second with 18 apiece, and Southern Connecticut and Syracuse were deadlocked for fourth with 10 apiece.

The remaining 16 finals will be held Sunday.

FARLEIGH DICKINSON CAPTURES IC4A TITLE

Fairleigh Dickinson, winning only one of the day's 16 finals, gained its first team title today in the IC4A indoor track and field championships.

Fairleigh Dickinson's foreign legion accumulated 56 points in the three-day competition, the lowest winning score in five years. Villanova was second with 47 points, followed by Maryland with 43 1/3, Richmond with 31, Seton Hall and Mount St. Mary's with 30 each; Boston University with 28, and Georgetown and Penn State with 26 each.

Fairleigh might have scored more points, but Coach Russ Rogers let his runners talk him out of entering the mile relay, usually one of their strongest events. The four relay runners would have had to run a trial heat Saturday and a semifinal and final today. Without the mile relay, they could all run fresh in their other events.

As Rogers explained it: "They said, 'Coach, if we don't run the mile relay, we'll be first or second in our individual events.' I took them at their word. They told the truth."

Fairleigh Dickinson's winner was Ephraim Serrette of Trinidad, who took the 55-meter dash in 6.32 seconds. Its other finalists during the day all scored heavily.

Clyde Edwards of Barbados finished second in the 400 meters, Oliver Alves of Guyana second in the 500 meters, Jama Aden of Somalia second in the 1,000 meters, Solomon Chebor of Kenya second in the 3,000 meters, Richard Ouma of Kenya third in the 800 meters and the distance medley relay team third.

This was the 61st annual meet of the IC4A - the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America - the nation's oldest indoor championship for colleges. The individual stars included Ed Yearwood of Morgan State and John Gregorek of Georgetown.

Yearwood is a 22-year-old junior from Stratford, Conn. Two years ago, when he attended the University of New Haven, he won the 400 meters. He repeated here over Princeton University's 220-yard Tartan track and set a meet record of 47.24 seconds.

Yearwood was the only 400-meter finalist who did not start from a sprinter's crouch. He said that if he had, he might have collapsed. "In 1980," said Yearwood, "I tore ligaments and tendons in my right thumb playing basketball. When I won the IC4A that year, my arm was in a cast from the thumb to the elbow. I still can't put pressure on the thumb, so that's why I use a standing start."

Yearwood returned in the final event of the day and anchored Morgan State to victory in the mile relay in 3 minutes 13.46 seconds. Gregorek had a similar double, winning the 3,000 meters in 8:06.8 and later anchoring Georgetown to a 40-meter victory in the distance medley relay in 9:49.5. 4th-Rated Steeplechaser

Gregorek, a senior from Northport, L.I., was the world's fourthranking steeplechaser last year. But Chebor, ranked ninth in the world, beat him in the IC4A and national collegiate outdoor championships by sprinting by him with 300 meters to go.

"This time," said Gregorek, "I got by him with a lap and a half to go. I was smart for a change, and it worked." The day produced six meet records - by Yearwood in the 400, Rod Wilson of Villanova in the 55-meter high hurdles (7.26 seconds), Derrick Peynado of Seton Hall in the 500 meters (1:02.10), John Hunter of Villanova and Ireland in the 1,000 meters (2:22.27), Ray Treacy of Providence and Ireland in the 5,000 meters (14:02.73) and Leo Williams of Navy in the high jump (7 feet 4 1/2 inches).

Frank Alston of C.W. Post, who swept the IC4A triple jumps indoors and outdoors in 1980 and 1981, won his third straight indoor title with 52 feet 5 1/4 inches.
