

English & Languages

Questions to think about!

Maps are made up of Shapes, numbers, colours and 'TEXT' - words and descriptions in all languages.

A Glossary - (map word explanations) can be found at the Scottis Map Library link.

Word games - crossword and wordsearches help with spelling these cartographic words!

Adventure stories written by authors...usually start with a map...which books can you find with maps in theres a starter list on the page

Adventurers use maps to plan their adventures and journey...can you research about some adventurers that needed maps...and find out why they needed different maps for their particular journey. Links on the page to start you off

Which language (s) do you speak? How many languages are there in your country?

How many languages are in the world? Whats is the most spoken language?

Are there old languages that are still spoken?

Which new words have been added to our languages in the last 10 years? Or even last year?