

Nu Chapter Pledge of Stewardship

Every Brother welcomed into the fold of Nu Chapter is merely a steward entrusted with the careful and responsible management of the Chapter. As such, we are all charged with a lifelong obligation to maintain, protect, and sustain the Chapter for the next generation of Brothers that follow in our footsteps.

The Greek word for stewardship, oikonomos, refers to someone entrusted to oversee or manage important spiritual responsibilities. Nu Chapter will continue to live on, long after the brevity of life, but nonetheless sustained by the lives and fraternal spirit of each new generation of Brothers, if each Brother, ever-mindful of the stewardship entrusted in him and profound devotion to our beloved Fraternity, Omega Psi Phi, keeps this pledge.

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" Psalm 133.
