Family-Camera Day at Beaver Stadium

Penn State's football team will hold its fourth annual "Family-Camera Day" at Beaver Stadium April 21. The 1974 Nittany Lions will be on hand in uniform at the stadium at 1 p.m. for the hour-long photo and autograph session. The picture-taking will be followed by an intrasquad scrimmage at 2 p.m.

Previous Family-Camera Days have attracted as many as 3,000 fans to see the team, coaches, cheerleaders and Nittany Lions.

"We have been really pleased that so many people have come out in the past for this day," says Lion coach Joe Paterno. "We feel we have some fine young people in our program and we are happy to give the public an opportunity to meet them."

The scrimmage that follows the photo session will give the fans a preview of next year's squad.

"This is an important spring practice for us because we have so many holes to fill and so many young people to see," the Lion coach says. "We have a lot of work to do this spring."

The Lions lose 13 senior starters, including 10 players drafted by the National Football League, from last year's 12-0 Orange Bowl champions.

The Lions, ranked in the Top Ten of the last seven seasons, lose three first team All-Americans in tailback John Cappelletti, defensive tackle Randy Crowder and linebacker Ed O'Neil.

Among the returnees are quarterback Tom Shuman, tight end Dan Natale, defensive back Jim Bradley and center Jack Baurman.
