

Phi Gam Stops LCA; Alpha Sig Tribs Delts

Phi Gamma Delta's gridders, worrying little about last night's bitter cold temperatures seemed filled with anticipation as they befuddled a strong Lambda Chi Alpha eleven, 10-4, in IM fraternity league play.

Phi Gam's victory knocked Lambda Chi out of a three way tie for first place in League B and set the stage for the deciding battle with Chi Phi on the golf course IM fields at 7:30 tonight.

Double Your Reading Speed?

A noted publisher in Chicago reports there is a simple technique of rapid reading which should enable you to double your reading speed and yet retain much more. Most people do not realize how much they can increase their pleasure, success and income by reading faster and more accurately.

According to this publisher, anyone, regardless of his present reading skill, can use this simple technique to improve his reading ability to a remarkable degree. Whether reading stories, textbooks, technical matter, it becomes possible to read sentences at a glance and entire pages in seconds by following this method.

To acquaint the readers of this newspaper with the easy rules for developing rapid reading, the company has printed full details of its interesting training method in a new book, "Advances in Reading Improvement," which will be mailed free to anyone who requests it. No obligation. Simply send your request for Reading Program, 835 Diversy Hwy., Dept. 3758, Chicago 14, Ill. A postcard will do.

Previously all three League B entries were deadlocked with identical 4-1 records. The winner of tonight's Phi Gamma Delta-Chi Phi battle earns the chance to compete in the fraternity finals which are scheduled to start later this week.

John First, Phi Gam's impressive quarterback, completed 18 of 31 passes to pace his teammates. But until late in the game, Phi Gamma's hopes were slim 3-0 margin.

THE INITIAL three points came on a 22-yard field goal by Larry West. The score was set up after the Phi Gam's marched 47 yards in eight plays before deciding to attempt a field goal on a fourth down situation.

An insurance touchdown was added late in the game when a ferial tossed by LCA signal-caller according to the final statistics, Phi Gam's out-ripped Lambda Chi Alpha, 7-4.

In the middle of the second half, Lambda Chi made its only serious threat to score and move ahead. LCA's Ed Rosenzweig came up with a key interception on Phi Gam's 38-yard line. On the next play, Fraut rolled out to his left and tossed to end John Jourdon on the three, but the Phi Gam's held.

In the only match last night for a league championship, Alpha Sigma Phi's Lou Amiel

END CHICK HARTE misses a pass from quarterback John First in the second half of last night's game which found Phi Gamma Delta defeating Lambda Chi Alpha, 10-0. Behind Harte is LCA defender and Phi Gam teammate Chad Moore. Tonight Phi Gam battles Chi Phi for the League A championship.

booted a 33-yard field goal to necessitated after an official made account for the game's only score—a duped judgment call as ASP captured the League team's earliest meeting.

This time the game wasn't even a contest. Omega Psi Phi scored two touchdowns in the first half, the Smith to Emmitt Griffitt and Chester Collins.

Larch House and Venango captured the fraternity division with victories. Larch chopped down Birch, 7-3, and Venango stopped Northampton, 7-0.

Scamora swept past Balsam, 6-0, to cop the championship throne in a one independent league M.

Nittany 27-28 scored a 4-2 victory over the Delta, 3-0, while fraternity sportsmen will play the Oldmen down on the night to decide the league 6-6 victory over Jefferson.

The Rats tripped the Coal-

Omega Psi Phi rolled over De-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

the Rats tripping the Coal-

crackers, 3-1 on last downs, with

Stan Stays After Card Controversy

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Branch Rickey's proposal to retire St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Stan Musial is the apparent cause of a major disagreement with Cardinal General Manager Bing Devine.

President August A. Busch Jr. said yesterday Musial not only will play for the Cardinals in 1963 but Musial will become a Cardinal vice president when he decides to retire.

That is hard to believe because both Bing and Johnny Keane said they would not want me. I won't retire, not in 1963 and not in the good shape I'm in. If the Cardinals want to trade me, I will do it.

Some of the club's officials said on learning of the offer, the tollment proposal, Keane is field manager.

Rickey was recently hired by the Cardinals as a senior consultant on player development.

The disagreement between the 80-year-old Rickey and 45-year-old Devine touched off the Cardinals' 1962 season.

Devine is still running the Cardinals. Busch said, according to reports, Rickey had suggested to Devine and him that they should be asked to retire to a young man could take over.

Rickey said in New York he had changed his mind on Devine and Keane's advice.

Rickey said it would be dangerous to regard a man of Musial's advanced baseball age as a regular.

But Stan can still help in a playing capacity, Rickey said.

Rickey said he was under the impression earlier that Musial intended to retire after the 1962 baseball season.

Donato Faces Big Fight To Retain Starting Job

(This is the third in a series on members of the 1962-63 Penn State basketball team. Next is Chuck Martin.)

Bob Donato faces a struggle battle for a starting guard position this year, but the Ridley, Pa. junior isn't about to give away the job.

If early season practice sessions are any indication, Donato will be starting at guard when the Lions open their season at Maryland Dec. 1.

His main opposition for the back court slot will come from sophomore sensation Bob Weiss.

Donato, a 5-10, 185-pound junior, was a starter for the Lions last year injury shelved him in the Ohio State game in late December.

He spent much of the remainder of the season trying to recuperate but once he regained the starting position near the end of the season he showed before the injury.

Before the injury, Donato was a vital cog in helping the Lions to four straight wins. Their best start in history. He scored 18 and 17 points respectively in two Lion wins on the road against Syracuse and Colgate.

Then came the injury at Ohio State.

AND WHAT made the injury even more painful was the fact that no one was near Donato when he sprained his ankle. He was maneuvering with the ball when his ankle gave way.

Donato is a throw-back to the old time collegiate ball player. His big shot is the two handed set shot, seldom seen in collegiate ball today.

And it will be the ability to hit this set shot that will determine if Donato will earn a starting position.

"If he keeps putting the ball through the hoop like he's been doing in practice," coach John Egli said, "then there's no reason why he doesn't deserve the chance."

Egli also praised Donato for his spirit.

"HE DOES a good job for his size and has something I like—the desire to play," Egli added.

Donato played brilliant ball handling and passing as a freshman and was named "The Magician" by the fans.

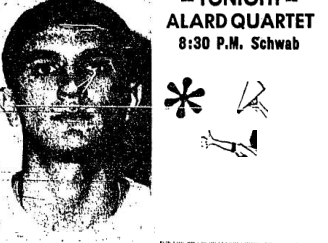

However, at no time last year did Donato live up to his advanced billing.

"It could have been the ankle injury he suffered or the psychological effect of a "clothesline" job done on him by Ohio State All-American John Havlicek.

If Donato has shaken off the effects of the two injuries—the sprained ankle and the clothesline took—the little junior may again start the season at guard.

Mountie Scout Worried After scouting Penn State Saturday afternoon at Beaver Springs, West Virginia, assistant Coach Donaldson shook his head and said: "What a team. We'll probably see the single wing too next week."

BOB DONATO

EXTRACURRICULAR ENTERTAINMENT OFF CAMPUS

The Unique New National College Magazine

At Nearby Newsstands

Let Collegian Classifieds WORK FOR YOU

CREDIT STAFF MEETING Tonight - 6:45 p.m. 131-Sackett

Old and New Members Bring Pens

COLLEGIAN CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE TYPING WANTED

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT... WANTED TO RENT...

COLLEGE MEN Part time employment 15 hours per week

Promotional work for internationally known firm with offices in every major city throughout the world. Career furnished. Careers in management available to qualified students upon graduation. Must have at least average grades. Working schedule will be arranged to suit class and study schedule whenever possible.

Call Mr. Morse, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m. AD 8-8992

Salary - 47 dollars per week

Russians Mum Over Hoop Plans

NEW YORK (AP) — As in their smiling efforts to bring him back to the moon, the Russians have a plan for over-taking the United States in basketball. The tall and taciturn Soviet cagers, who open an 8-game tour of the United States tomorrow night at the Madison Square Garden, were in- out of the bag yesterday while discussing the relative merits of the game in the two countries.

"We are striving to catch up," he said, after pointing out that America had a long head start.

What is the Russian timetable? What steps are being taken to close the gap?

Spandara, a pleasant man with a deep-tanned face and graying crew-cut hair, only

Waterfield Resigns as Ram Coach

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Waterfield, one of professional football's all-time greats as a quarterback but a loser as a coach, stepped down yesterday as head coach of the faltering Rams. His action came as his old club's season record stood at one win against seven defeats. He was midway through a five-year contract.

"I met at noon today with General Manager Elroy Hirsch," Waterfield said. "After much thought I have decided to resign."

Defensive line coach Harland Ware was appointed interim head coach.

INMATES SAY Waterfield, and 1951—a tie for fourth in 1952 when playing center, took the Rams to Cleveland, then in 1951, Los Angeles—to the heights of pro football, but became deeply discouraged with his team's performance in the 2 1/2 seasons he had coached in the back yard there had not been any dissatis-

THE ALARD STRING QUARTET in a CONCERT

Wednesday, Nov. 7 8:30 p.m. Schwab Auditorium

The Dept. of Music, School of the Arts

The Ski Division of the

PENN STATE OUTING CLUB

• Presents Films of the Ski Races at Chamonix, France

• Plans for Christmas Ski Trip

• Preparations for local winter activities

Rm. 10 Sparks Thurs., Nov. 8 7:00 P.M.

ALL IT TAKES

PURE WHITE MODERATOR PLUS: FILTER - BLEND UP FRONT

Nothing else needed but you to complete this picture smoking at its flavorful best. Enjoy yourself...light up a Winston Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!