Thank you

Thank you for the prayers, cards, calls, texts, food, and memorials as we grieve the loss of my dad and celebrate his new life in heaven. We felt your prayers and God's presence through this time. Our RACRC family is always so loving and caring. God Bless each one of you. Love and hugs, Sue and Mike Hennagir

Communion

Today, we will celebrate communion together. It is good to prepare ourselves for the Lord's Supper. Think about your walk with God. Is there sin to be confessed? Is the cleansing joy of God's forgiveness in Christ a reality in your life? Are you by the power of the Holy Spirit, living your life in Christ and to the glory of God?

None of us is perfect but Christ's sacrifice on the cross for us and the acceptance of His salvation allows us to respond to His invitation to come to His table. Welcome!
