

JNX, the young Mariposa, CA hard rock trio, is as if Metallica had a child with Guns n Roses and Green Day was its babysitter. With their in-your-face riffs and high-energy rhythms, JNX aims to bring a new fire to the rock and metal world.

In September 2024, JNX released their debut album entitled "Love, Hate, Apocalypse". The album is filled with the teenage angst of learning to fend for yourself in the chaos of the modern world.

JNX was nominated for the "Best New Artist" and "Best Overall Band" of 2024 categories in the Central Valley Music Awards. In the summer of 2022, JNX placed top 10 out of 112 bands in a songwriting competition put on by Dirtbag Clothing with their debut single "Red Parade".

JNX has begun rolling out their sophomore album this year, starting with the release of their newest single, "My Name is Trouble". They plan to tour throughout the year and drop the full record in late summer
