

LAURA EVANS

Jazz Pianist • Vocalist • Songwriter

Laura Evans puts new life into jazz, with an eclectic approach that resonates with listeners of both jazz and mainstream music.

LAURAEVANSPIANO.COM

THE ARTIST

Laura Evans

Laura Evans is a New York-based eclectic jazz pianist, vocalist, and songwriter whose distinctive music is rooted in jazz, but inspired by a wide range of genres.

Laura Evans, an accomplished musician, competition-winner, and recipient of the Chick Corea Scholarship at Berklee College of Music, has performed with numerous distinguished artists outside of her current core trio, including recording artists Cameron Brown and Don Miller. Her compositions have been performed throughout the United States and Europe.

While performing throughout the New York Metro area and the Hudson Valley, Laura is establishing herself in new regions and venues. Her new album is in the works, and her online audience includes more than 4,000 YouTube subscribers.

Evans leads a variety of ensembles that include her professional, award-winning core trio. The trio includes Paul Rossman, drummer on Grammy-nominated albums, and award-winning bassist, Vince Leggiere.

Laura Evans is a highly skilled piano player, singer and arranger. She delivers a mix of musical styles with finesse (and pizzazz).
— Phil Ciganer, Towne Crier

The Music

Laura Evans brings fresh and eclectic new life to jazz, blending genres from rock to pop, funk, blues, and Latin to create unexpected possibilities in familiar music as well as in her own compositions. Her performances can move from intimate and expressive to energetic and groove-driven. Laura's music offers something unexpected, engaging, and fun for both jazz and mainstream audiences.

Laura Evans Jazz

Jazz standards and original music, featuring unique arrangements.

A flexible jazz program featuring both instrumental and vocal music, with jazz standards alongside Laura's original music.

Decades

Songs from across the decades, reimagined in Laura Evans' distinctive jazz style.

Familiar music, unexpected arrangements, and plenty of musical surprises.

Jazzy Little Christmas

Traditional Christmas favorites, reimagined through Laura Evans' eclectic jazz style.

Beloved holiday songs take on fresh, unexpected arrangements that draw from jazz and other musical styles, creating an upbeat, festive, toe-tapping holiday show with a distinctly Laura Evans sound. Jazzy Little Christmas offers a fresh take on music audiences already know and love.

Decades of Love

Love songs from across the decades, with a distinctly Laura Evans sound.

A Valentine's Day concert featuring love songs from different decades, from timeless classics to more contemporary favorites—all given the distinctive Laura Evans treatment.

Beatles Rejazzed

The Beatles through a jazz lens.

Beatles songs, reimagined through Laura Evans' distinctive jazz style, with unique arrangements that bring a fresh perspective to familiar favorites.

MOONJAM

Pop & rock from the '60s to today, reimagined through jazz, blues & funk.

A 4-5 piece band puts a fresh, groove-driven spin on familiar pop and rock songs from the 1960s to today, blending jazz, blues, and funk into unique arrangements with plenty of energy.

100 Years of Love

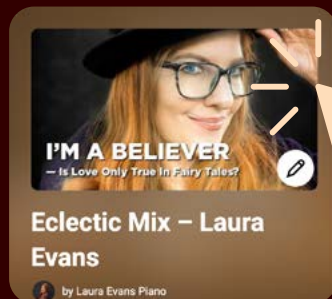

A musical journey through a century of love songs from the Popular Music Genre and the changing ways we express love through music.

Laura Evans performs familiar favorites old and new in her distinctive jazz arrangements while sharing the stories, history, and musical influences behind them. A lively celebration of music, history, and the enduring love song.

THE LINKS

Click below to watch sample performances
on YouTube:

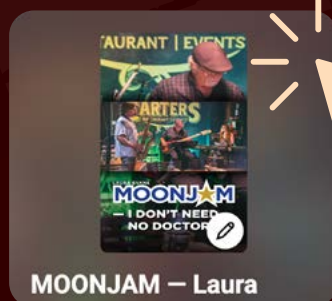

ECLECTIC MIX SHOWS

JAZZ STANDARD SHOWS

MOONJAM SHOWS

LauraEvansPiano.com

LauraEvans@LauraEvansPiano.com

845-605-8448

What the public is saying

Laura Evans is a highly skilled piano player, singer and arranger. She delivers a mix of musical styles with finesse (and pizzazz).
— Phil Ciganer, Towne Crier

Arts Mid-Hudson has worked with Laura on multiple large-scale events, and we continue to receive compliments from our guests about her performances. She is a talented musician, highly professional, and a pleasure to work with. We highly recommend Laura.

— Morgan Wynkoop, Arts Mid-Hudson

Laura was a pleasure to work with, and her piano playing made the evening all the more special!

— Mackey, Catania & Whalen LLP

Laura Evans has an unpretentious gift of music and song that is simultaneously gentle and upbeat. This is a performance you must not miss if you're in the Millbrook environs as well as other venues not too far from home. When you're at a performance you'll know I'm there as I'm the animated groupie silently pretending to be her back up.

— Marilyn Hamada

Laura Evans is a top-notch pianist and singer, and it is a real treat to be able to spend an evening listening to her perform at local venues here in the Hudson Valley. Whether she is playing jazz tunes, oldies, or her own compositions, her playing is flawless, her voice true, and her love for the music obvious.

— Mariana Schackne