MISSED LESSONS:

- Cancellations really hurt! Making Strides of Virginia has staff, volunteers and horses ready for a session and no one to participate. Please help us respect the time of our volunteers and staff. We do understand that unexpected medical conditions can affect our riders and, if that is the case, we will discuss tuition adjustments on an individual basis. If Making Strides of Virginia cancels an appointment, we will notify you by phone as soon as we can and credit your account. If you do not show up for a lesson and you do not call, you will be charged for the appointment.
