Ripementoring Pty Ltd ICIP (Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property) statement acknowledges and respects the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to their cultural heritage and intellectual property, including traditional knowledge and cultural expressions. It recognizes their right to own, control, and protect their cultural heritage, including the right to authorize or refuse commercial use.

We recognize the importance of ICIP and the rights of Indigenous peoples. Show respect for the cultural heritage and intellectual property of Indigenous communities and their Self-determination, supporting the right of Indigenous peoples to determine how their cultural heritage and intellectual property are used. We will engage with Indigenous communities in the development and implementation of ICIP policies and will obtain informed consent from Indigenous communities before using their ICIP to ensure that Indigenous communities benefit from the use of their ICIP and aim to protect ICIP from unauthorized use and exploitation.

Your Sincerely,

Ashleigh McGuire
Director of Ripementoring Pty Ltd
