

Addiction is Chaotic. Finding a Way Out of It Shouldn't Be.

That's where The Sobriety Resource can help.

We are a private 501(c)3 non-profit and help families struggling with addiction find the resources to meet their unique needs so they can move forward in their recovery.

One way we do this is by removing the financial barriers to finding and securing trustworthy treatment and recovery options.

We offer free consultations to families and financial scholarships to qualifying individuals who are seeking to enter or remain in a trusted program.

We even stay with those who are doing well to invest further in their long-term healing and recovery. All free of charge.

That's where YOU can help!
