

HELP CAROLINA

Helping Everyone Leave Poverty

Case Management Services

At HELP Carolina, we provide comprehensive case management services designed to offer resources and secure stable, permanent housing for individuals experiencing homelessness. Our approach goes beyond surface-level assistance, as we work to build lasting relationships that support individuals for the long term. To learn more about how we serve our community, visit us at www.helpcarolina.org!

Community Partners

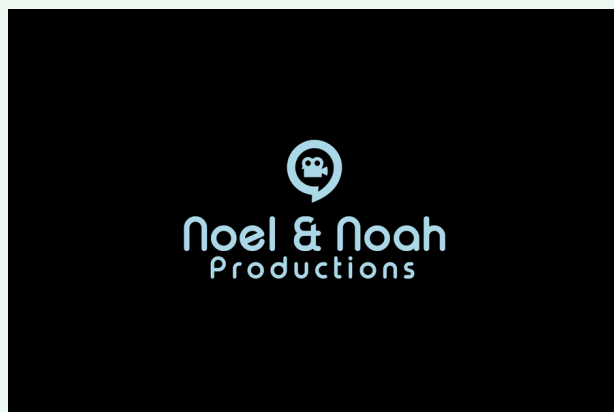

Thanks to our community partners and sponsors, HELP Carolina is able to make a lasting impact by providing essential services such as stable housing placements, laundry services, and healthcare access. These resources empower individuals to regain stability and transition to independent living. Be sure to check out our key partners and sponsors on the next page!

Key Partner Spotlight: Noel & Noah Productions

Noel & Noah Productions, founded by Ashleigh Gilliam, is a nonprofit organization based in Gastonia, NC, dedicated to educating youth and adults on all aspects of filmmaking, from behind the scenes to on-camera performance. Through workshops, classes, camps, and hands-on training, they nurture aspiring filmmakers of all ages. We are especially grateful to Noel & Noah Productions for their invaluable support in producing HELP Carolina's multimedia content, including newsletters and social media. Ashleigh's deep involvement in the community includes serving as Board Chair President of the Gaston Arts Council and on the Board of Directors for The Little Theater of Gastonia, among many other roles. We are thankful for her continued partnership!

Key Partner Spotlight: St. Mark's Episcopal Church

We are deeply grateful to St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Gastonia, NC, for their unwavering support of HELP Carolina. As strong advocates for community engagement and building lasting connections, St. Mark's has been instrumental in helping us extend our outreach and services to those in need. Their commitment to fostering a more compassionate and supportive community aligns perfectly with our mission of helping individuals find stability and permanent housing. We are truly thankful for their partnership and generosity. We encourage you to learn more about their remarkable work and visit their church to see how they continue to make a difference in our community!

New Grantor Spotlight: North Carolina State Employees Credit Union

We are thrilled to announce that HELP Carolina has been awarded a generous $40,000 grant from the State Employees' Credit Union! This funding will allow us to enhance our operations and increase our capacity to serve the community. With these resources, we can refine our programs and broaden our reach, helping even more individuals and families on their path to stable, permanent housing. We are incredibly grateful for the State Employees' Credit Union's commitment to our mission and are excited to begin the important work that lies ahead. Thank you for believing in us and our vision for a stronger, more supportive community!
