Youth Auction Guidelines: (This department qualifies for both the live auction and silent auction)

To participate in the live auction, youth exhibitors must follow specific requirements. For the live auction, each participant must submit five photos showing themselves actively engaged in their project. The photos should include:

- One photo at the project's development stage

- Three photos of the exhibitor actively working on the project

- One photo at the project's completion

Additionally, exhibitors must submit a paragraph explaining why they chose this project and what they learned from the experience. Both the photos and the written paragraph must be submitted using the Ag/Home Art Live Auction Project Submittal Form, available at <http://www.yavapaifair.com>.

Awards:

Judging will follow the Danish style. The Danish Judging System is based on merit, with exhibits judged according to set standards. All entries meeting Blue-Ribbon quality will receive a Blue Ribbon, those meeting Red-Ribbon quality will receive a Red Ribbon, and those meeting White-Ribbon quality will receive a White Ribbon. Following this, a Best of Class will be awarded for each class, a Best of Division for division winners, and finally, a Best of Show for common areas.
