

GENERAL RULES AND POLICIES

1. No Alcoholic beverages, narcotics, or any illegal substances may be brought onto the grounds.
2. Reserves the right to deny admission to and remove any person who appears to be intoxicated or under the influence of narcotics or any illegal substances.
3. No person shall bring into or possess within grounds any firearm or weapons of any nature (or objects that appear to be weapons), including, but not limited to, knives, chains, ammunition, impact weapons, chemical agents (e.g. mace, pepper spray, etc.) or electronic control devices (e.g. tasers, stun guns, etc.) No concealed-carry firearms will be permitted by non-law enforcement personnel on property at any time.
4. Smoking of tobacco, vapes, or other products that produce a vapor or smoke is allowed only in designated smoking areas.
5. No drones, selfie sticks, monopods, tripods, or similar devices may be used on grounds for filming or personal use, including those purchased at the event.
6. No pets are permitted on the grounds with the exception of approved service animals (e.g. dogs)
7. All personal mobility vehicles cannot exceed 5 MPH on the grounds at any time.
8. Proper attire must be worn at all times, including shirts and appropriate footwear. Clothing or visible tattoos with offensive, obscene, or criminal street gang affiliation are prohibited on these grounds. Fair reserves the right to deny admission to anyone not adhering to the above regulations.
9. All persons, bags, parcels, clothing, and other items may be subject to protective screening/security checks at Fair entrances and also within the grounds.
10. Fair reserves the right not to allow any bag, parcel, or other item to be brought into the grounds, and to deal with any unattended object in such a way as we consider inappropriate.

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

The following activities are prohibited at Fair:

1. Conduct and behavior that is threatening, belligerent, hostile, disorderly, obscene, lewd, unsafe, illegal, and disruptive or interferes with or endangers the operations, staff, or patrons. Such conduct may include, but not limited to, fighting, using profanity or abusive language, spitting, running, shouting, littering, horseplay, throwing of any type of debris or object, and/or using threatening remarks, symbols or gestures.
2. Standing or walking in large groups that block the movement of Fair patrons or cause inconvenience to others.
3. Blocking any building, booth, exhibit, concession stand, performance, ticket window, gate, stage, doorway, walkway, fire exit or stairway.
4. Bicycle riding, skateboarding, rollerblading, Moped riding, Segway riding, hoverboarding, or skating of any kind on Fairgrounds.
5. Interfering with Fair business or interfering with the conduct of business by Fair concessionaires or exhibitors.
7. Soliciting contributions or signatures, leafleting, picketing, or displaying signs, posters, or banners except in designated areas assigned by Fair, by permit upon proper application, subject to Fair rules for non-commercial expressive activity.
8. Soliciting for sale, offering for sale, selling goods or services and/or distributing buttons, bumper stickers, hats, balloons, T-shirts, novelty items, and food beverages by non-concessionaires. (The sales of goods and services may only be conducted in a designated commercial space by approved concessionaires upon payment of a fee for such commercial space. Applications for such commercial space may be obtained from the Fair commercial sales department).
9. Any activity that could result in physical harm to person or property.

In addition to Fair Guest Code of Conduct, guests are required to comply with all local, state and federal laws, as well as individual Fair policies, rules and instructions posted or otherwise listed.

Fair Code of Conduct is subject to change without notice.

Violation of these Rules of Conduct will constitute cause for removal of the violator from Fairgrounds.

COMMERCIAL PRODUCTION RELEASE

By entering these premises, you authorize and hereby give permission to the Fair to copyright and publish all photographs and/or motion pictures and/or voice recordings and/or videotapes taken by them or their agents in which you may appear. You further agree that the Fair may use or cause to be used, these items for any and all exhibits, public displays, publications, commercial art advertising purposes without limitations or reservation, or any fee is hereby acknowledged. Filming and photography utilize still, video, and drone image capture systems

By entering the Fair Grounds, or by attending any event at the Fair by registering for or participating in event activities/shows/competitions and/or entering the premises, attendees agree to all regulations, restrictions and guidelines as set forth below and/ regulations as set forth by the Fair.

*All persons enter at their own risk and participate at their own risk.

*No soliciting, polling, campaigning. (Exception to this is at paid vendor booth spaces during the vendor trade show only and only within the boundaries of the rented booth space. Also, the fair parade does allow for campaigning and soliciting provided it is part of a parade entry (either via clothing, float design, handouts or giveaways, pamphlets, or banners.) The fair board reserves the exclusive right to hang a solicitation, campaign or other type of banner if the person(s) represented has paid for such right at the Fair Grounds during the pendency of the County Fair.

*Protestors/picketing is designated to the overflow parking area at the North end of the Fair Grounds so long as the demonstration does not threaten the health, safety, or welfare of fair attendees or livestock, and ingress/egress is not impeded.

*Smoking is prohibited in all fairground buildings including open-air pavilions and barns. This includes vaping and e-cigarettes. *Bringing alcohol into the fairgrounds is strictly prohibited. Due to liquor licensing law, all liquor/alcohol consumed at the Fair must be purchased on grounds from the designated vendor, and all purchases and consumers of alcohol must be 21 or older. (Attendees who are residents of the campground must adhere to this when in the general area of the fairgrounds, this does not apply to the campground area itself when alcohol is consumed exclusively in private campers or trailers.)

*Parents/Guardians and/or a designated adult are responsible for the supervision of all minors at all times. Minors should not be on grounds without proper supervision, the fair is not a place to drop your minor off for the day or night.

*Parking in a designated handicapped spot without a handicapped tag or license plate will be subject to immediate towing at the owner's expense. Parking in a no parking area or zone is subject to immediate towing at the owner's expense.

*Pets are not allowed on the fairgrounds. The only dogs allowed are certified service dogs, service dogs in training, and those participating in the Dog Show, Round Robin, Parade on the final Sunday or fair, and the Pet Animal Contest.

*No posting of printed materials/flyers/advertisements on the property of the Fair Grounds is permitted except as specifically approved by the Fair Board at designated booths or tables. At no time may distribution or solicitation disturb the peace nor pose a risk to the health, safety, or welfare of attendees or animals of the Fair.

*Any physical abuse or actions that endanger animal health, safety, or welfare are strictly prohibited; including forced feeding, forced hydration, and other similar acts. Barn rules are posted and must be followed by the public as well as entered exhibitors. Exhibitors have additional rules that must be adhered to - (see Livestock Exhibitor Rules.)

*No unauthorized bikes, skateboards, roller blades, scooters, golf carts or motorized vehicles are allowed on the fairgrounds except in the designated area for bikes in the campground. The Fair Board reserves the right to authorize use of such vehicles only for facilities workers, fair board members, extension staff and representatives of these entities. Exception is to handicapped scooters, electric wheelchairs, and other accommodations in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

*The Fair Board is not responsible for lost articles or damage to property.

*No drones shall be used or permitted on or above the Fairgrounds, except by express permission of the Fair Board. Only properly permitted, licensed, and insured drones and operators may be granted permission to operate a drone by the Fair Board.

*The sale or distribution of food, beverage items of any kind, and/or other items is strictly prohibited except by authorized vendors that have an existing vendor agreement with Fair.

*No persons are allowed on the fairgrounds overnight unless they possess a camping permit in the designated campground area. Contact the Fair facilities office for permits and camping information. Overnight camping without a permit or outside of the campground area will be subject to towing at the owner's expense.

*The Fair Board and representatives of the board reserve the right to exclude access to livestock areas and/or from the Fair activities, to any person whose behavior (to include violations of fair ground rules, public cursing, abusive or belligerent language, or any language/actions that be construed as threatening, or behavior which causes interruption of shows, events, transactions, classes or any activity associated with the fair). Guests are expected to behave respectfully and in accordance with fair rules, state and local laws. Any attendee acting in a manner that fair officials deem unsafe or threatening may be asked to leave or be trespassed from the Fairgrounds by law enforcement.

*The Fair reserves the right to publish and copyright images associated with the Fair (including audio, moving images or photography) for educational programs, websites, social media, and promotion of the event.

*If a guest violates a state or local law, they will be subject to any tickets or punishment deemed necessary by local law enforcement. The Fair Board may delegate authority to enforce Fair rules to designated security officers or other authorized parties.

Violators of the Spectator Policies/Rules for Attendees of the Fair may be served with verbal or written notice from a fair official to immediately cease activity/correct situation.

*In the case of a violation of law or where safety is of concern, the issue will be dealt with by local law enforcement.

*The Fair Board members and representatives, or chairperson(s) and/or superintendent(s) of the Fair Board shall have decision-making authority for any fair-related event or activity, and decisions related to maintaining the health, safety, or welfare of fair attendees, participants, volunteers and livestock.

If a violator refuses to correct issue(s), or violates Fair Ground rules, and Fair policies, the offender may be asked to leave the fairgrounds immediately or may be trespassed from the fairgrounds.