

“for two”

The sun doesn't shine anymore

Like it did when we danced

To the songs on my floor

And the birds don't sing their little tune

Like they did when we laid

Upon your roof with the moon

So the radio

Wont ring

Songs of anew

Honey I know

Its time that I go

So make like a flower and bloom

Juliette can you still hear me

Romeo's alone

Calling out for you clearly and maybe one day if she goes

He'll sing by the creek

Gazing out on the rows

So the radio

Doesn't sing

On out songs for us two

I think we know

Its time that We go

So grow like a flower and bloom

Cause you know ill always see through

Your honey bee smile

And your colorful youth

And we both know the photo's in two

I promise ill never grow up and forget about you
