Did you complete this application yourself? Yes No If not, who did? Why?

As a pizza shop, we are busiest on the weekends,

Are you able to work most if not all weekends (including the nights)?

Do you currently use any drugs recreationally?

What's your take on drugs in the workplace?

As an employee you'll have to wear a metro shirt and hat, do you have any problems with that?

As a cashier, you will be responsible also for keeping the windows & glass doors clean.

As well as cleaning the dine-in area after a guest leaves.

Is this something that you think you can do all the time without the need for someone to instruct you to?

As a driver, you may be required to put on a car topper (magnetic with magnet covers),

Do you have any Objections?

We have no air conditioning currently, and it can get hot inside here, is that a problem?

How well do you know the streets in the Elizabethtown, Mt. Joy, Maytown areas?

How long do you see yourself staying at Metro?

As a driver, you'll be responsible for more than just driving.

---For example, dayshift drivers will need to answer phone calls, cut all vegetables for the night, and do dishes most times without any help on the last two things.

---Night drivers have to also answer phones (though there usually is a cashier or cook to help from 4-9); also will have the choice of dishes or mopping floors.

---On occasion, for both night and day you may have to help the shift manager top pizzas or do a little cooking in back.

---Does that sound like something you can and would do?

--- Do you feel you have the restraint to be courteous to even the rudest customers?

Have you used the Prism Order (taking) System before? OR taken orders over the phone?

Have you ever been in the position of trying to rectify a customer complaint? If so, explain / give an example.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY
