Indian Land, S.C. — Indian Land has been booming for the last two decades. An influx of people from all over the country has resulted in increased shopping, dining and all sorts of businesses to make life easier for residents.

But for Sun City Carolina Lakes resident Tony DeLouise, aka “Tony D,” something was still missing. There was the RedStone movie theater, but little else in the form of entertainment in the Panhandle...

Beach Boys and Your SCN Committee on Saturday, March 9, The Jersey Tenors return to the Panhandle, this time to the new venue with their newest opera/rock mashup, an explosive blend of the most iconic opera classics, alongside the music of industry greats such as Queen, ABBA, Journey, Elton John and Josh Groban, to name a few. But the group is also “Jersey proud!” and don’t forget where they came from, highlighting the best of their New Jersey brethren, like Frankie Vallie and The Four Seasons, Frank Sinatra, Bon Jovi and Bruce Springsteen. “I would like to eventually offer a dinner/theater package where customers would dine at one of the nearby restaurants and then attend a concert,” Tony said. That seems likely with several restaurants slated to open in the CrossRidge Shopping Center, which is now under construction near the auditorium. “I’m supposed to be retired,” says Tony, but the smile on his face and the way he speaks about this venture says otherwise. Tony and Mary Ellen have been married for 51 years and have twin sons, Christopher and Anthony, who are Civil and Chemical engineers living in Boston, Mass.
