The Club offers sporting activities to children and young people from the age of 5 to 18. Coill Dubh A.F.C. recruits over 40 volunteers with over 300 participants.

Coill Dubh A.F.C. is committed to safeguarding children and by working under the guidance of our Safeguarding Policies and procedures, our volunteers working with our children and young people, throughout the club, seek to create a safe and fun environment for children and young people to participate in their sport.

Principles to Safeguard Children from Harm

As defined in the Children First Act, 2015, "harm" means, in relation to a child (a) assault, ill-treatment, or neglect of the child in a manner that seriously affects or is likely to seriously affect the child's health, development, or welfare, or (b) sexual abuse of the child, whether caused by a single act, omission or circumstance or a series or combination of acts, omissions, or circumstances, or otherwise. This statement recognises that in accordance with legislation and the requirements of FAI Handbook, FAI Child Welfare and Safeguarding policy, other FAI policies and procedures that the welfare and interests of children are paramount in all circumstances. Coill Dubh A.F.C. is established on a number of core principles:

- the needs of the Child, integrity and respect, environment, equality (protected regardless of race, ability, ethnicity or sexual orientation), fair play, welfare and safety in football. These underlying principles underpin our rules, policies and procedures to ensure that when Children participating in our activities, they do so, as far as is practicable, in a safe and enjoyable environment.
