7th July, 2019

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING:

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah. 66:10-14.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

SECOND READING:

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Galatians. 6:14-18

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you.

GOSPEL: LUKE 10:1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

The 'St Vincent de Paul ' winter appeal' took place and thanks to Jane McLaughlin from our own St Vincent de Paul society for speaking about the appeal which raised $2,263.00. Also from a few weeks ago I received this note from the Executive Officer of ACCRAF (Australian Catholic Clergy Remuneration Assistance Fund) 'Hello Greg....how unbelievably generous and caring are you and your parishioners. Thank you just does not seem enough! Kindest regards as always.... Sally (Sally Heath) The $2,660 was both very much appreciated by me and the National Council of Priests headquarters as it helps with wages, at a time when country priests in large geographical dioceses cover huge distances and to communities with little disposable incomes.

Fr Rob Galea is a well-known pop- rock singer. His 'Coming Home' concert tour featuring Fr Rob Galea and his band will perform songs from his latest album at "The Clocktower Centre '750 Mt Alexander Road, Moonee Ponds from 5pm Sunday 14th July. More details are on notice board.

In case you were not here last weekend at Mass, I would like to alert you to the fact that last April 2018 I applied to the previous Archbishop for 'Sabbatical Leave' to hopefully take place much of the last half of the 2019 year. Fortunately for myself, I have been permitted 'Sabbatical Leave' from August 19th 2019 onwards, and since this is combined with one's normal annual holidays I intend to be back on deck Saturday November 30th.

On the 42nd anniversary of priesthood I will arrive in Cork, Ireland August 20th (Feast of St Bernard). Then 5 days later I will fly over to England to stay 3 days in Penzance in Cornwall. The 'Trythall village' used to be 5- 10 kilometres away and all that seems to exist these days is what is known as the "Trythall School" – a small alternative primary school of 69 children.

The main part of the sabbatical that I very much looking forward to will be taken up with a 1000 kilometre walk from Vezelay (just north of the centre of France) down to the Spanish border to St Jean Pied de Port.

Yours In 'Christ'

Fr Greg 5/7/2019

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER SUNDAY

NATSICC - National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council promotes and celebrates the cultural identity of our Peoples across the nation by living and expressing, in all its endeavours, the spirituality of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Peoples.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday falls on the first Sunday in July and is a significant celebration of our Church's calendar throughout Australia. While providing us with an opportunity to acknowledge our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander brothers and sisters, this celebration Sunday also signifies that we are united as one in God's love and care. Just as Jesus did, we must meet where they are and walk along our First Nation's peoples on their journey to reconciliation and justice. As Catholics we can set an example for the rest of Australia to follow by coming together as equals and friends in our Schools. Parishes and Organisations in the name of Jesus Christ and in the spirit of mutual respect and unity as one people.

Aboriginal Our Father

You are our Father, you live in heaven, we talk to you. Father you are good.

You are our Father, you live in heaven, we talk to you. Father you are good.

We believe your Word, Father. We are your children, give us bread today.

We believe your Word, Father. We are your children, give us bread today.

We have done wrong, we are sorry. Teach us Father, all about your Word.

We have done wrong, we are sorry. Teach us Father, all about your Word.

Others have done wrong to us, and we are sorry for them, Father, today

Others have done wrong to us, and we are sorry for them, Father, today

Stop us from doing wrong, Father, save us all from the evil one.

Stop us from doing wrong, Father, save us all from the evil one.

NATIONAL RECONCILIATION PRAYER

Creator Spirit,

All creation once declared your glory, your laws were honoured and trusted,
Forgive us our neglect as our country approaches a critical moment in its history.

Listen to our prayer as we turn to you, hear the cry of our land and its people,

Just as you heard the cry of Jesus, your Son, on the Cross.

Help us to replace our national shame with true national pride

by restoring the dignity of our First People whose antiquity is unsurpassed.

May our faith and trust in you increase.

Only then will our nation grow strong and be a worthy place for all who wish to make their home in our land.

Amen.
