Ménage A Soul, which translated means “Household of Soul” is a high energy dance band with a full horn section. Our family members are:

- Ariel Bryant (lead and backup vocals)
- Luis Molina (lead and backup vocals, and Latin percussion)
- John Saltamach (trumpet and vocals)
- Dave Frateschi (saxophones, flute, and trumpet)
- Dan Andrianos (trumpet)
- Clayton Morgan (trombone and trumpet)
- Michael Davis (keyboards)
- Dickie Cappotto (guitar)
- Pat Boylan (bass)
- Rock Carbone (drums and vocals).

Our music is an eclectic mix of Retro Soul and RnB, Disco, Classic Rock Party Hits, and a sprinkling of more modern dance hits. The band members are influenced by a multi-generational span of music from the jazz-swing era through modern RnB. These influences, our instrumentation, talents, passion, and fun-loving nature provide for stage performances that are interpersonal, captivating, entertaining, and FUN!
