Bitcoin & Cryptocurrency Investment Summit

About

Bitcoin & Cryptocurrency Investment Summit is devoted to further educating investors about investing in Bitcoin and other cryptocurrencies. The event will feature renown speakers from some of the industry's most successful crypto technologies, industry researchers, scholars as well as investment analysts, government regulatory officials and many other field experts.

The goal of the summit is to further educate individual and institutional investors in their understanding of Bitcoin and cryptocurrency investing, hedging as well as the risks and benefits associated with them.

Overview

Date: June 11-12, 2018

Location: New York, NY

Target attendance: 1,500

Attendee demographics: individual and institutional investors, money and fund managers

Speakers: Cryptocurrency field experts, coin founders, analysts, researchers, security experts, government, etc.

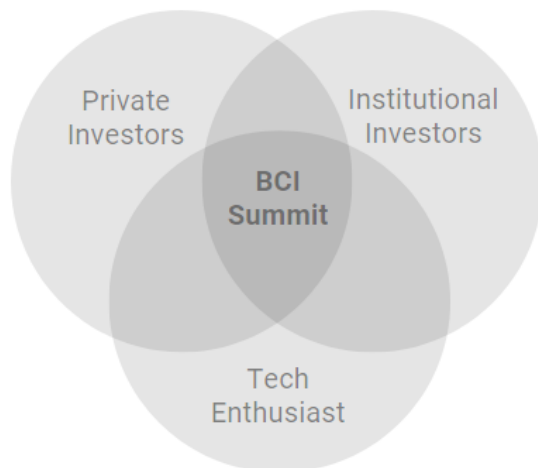

Value Obtained

BCI Summit presents an excellent opportunity for:

1. Brand Promotion - up to 1,275,000 direct target marketing impressions to target audience
2. Video Segments - embedded videos on event's website offer direct messages to visitors
3. Direct traffic - enabled in direct marketing - means direct traffic to sponsor's website
4. Pre-planned meetings - pre-event marketing allows for potential clients to start conversations and plan meetings during the event
5. Event meetings - meeting with new and established clients allows for development of stronger client relationships and trust building

Attendee Demographics

Our audience consists of individuals, investment management professionals, institutional investors as well as technology enthusiasts.

With Bitcoin growing in value nearly 2,500% in the past two years, the technology has gained traction, acceptance and popularity around the globe. We have seen a significant growth of interest among individuals and small to mid-tier investment management institutions. Thus, we will be employing a tremendous marketing effort to target:

Opportunities for Success

Three important factors position the BCI Summit and its sponsors for success:

1. Size of target market and marketing campaign
2. Extensive growth in value as well as investor interest in the crypto space
3. The disconnect and vacuum of information and investment understanding - which BCI will fill

When all three factors are considered together in synergy, the BCI Summit makes for one of the best opportunities to reach the ideal target market instantly, grow relationships and presents an excellent opportunity to meet in person and discuss business opportunities face-to-face.

Speaker Opportunities

Sponsors are offered front-of-the-line speaker application consideration. Upon confirmation and acceptance of a speaker presentation, sponsors have the opportunity to connect with nearly 1,500 potential clients and foster personal relationships and develop brand recognition.
