

Reverend Darryl Gause is a man from humble beginnings. He was born in Philadelphia, PA, where he resided until 1991. He was raised in a single parent home by his mother Dorothy Gause, a devout Christian. God came into his life at an early age, and he was baptized at the age of 10.

While growing up, Reverend Gause was a member of Philadelphia Baptist Church, and was very active in several auxiliaries. He admittedly shares that he felt the call of God as a young man, however, he did not accept his calling until the year 2000. Reverend Gause was licensed as a Minister of the Gospel on November 12, 2000. After years of studying and training in ministry, he was later ordained on September 11, 2005. He feels blessed to have been licensed and ordained by his late pastor, Reverend Toney Mosley.

Reverend Gause served as Assistant Pastor at Woods Memorial Baptist Church from the year 2005, until the untimely death of Pastor Mosely on March 24, 2023.

During his years in ministry, Reverend Gause has exhibited his love for all mankind and has passionately demonstrated his yearning to reach all men and women through effective preaching and teaching of God's word. Reverend Gause is also grateful for how God has used him to encourage and help others through marital, pre-marital and family counseling over the years.

Reverend Gause gives thanks to God everyday for choosing him before the foundation of the world to preach His Holy and Divine Word to the masses. He further thanks God for allowing him to live in and see the world and subsequently send him back to the world to bring glad tidings and the good news of the saving grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Reverend Gause is married to the former Traci McCaskill, and they have one daughter, Sanai' Nevaeh.
