

Danika Rozhanica

Danika Rozhanica is a Creator beyond genre.

Her songs are a salve for the spirit, & her voice is honest, filled with an earnestness that can quiet any crowded bar. Her art & her heart, are entirely devoted to creating an even more beautiful, heartfelt world.

Singing on county fair stages since the age of three, her voice shines with the light of her influences, the pure balladry of Ireland's Paul Brady, the modern mystic rhythms of Sierra Ferrell, the open hearted lyricism of Ms. Lauryn Hill, & the psychedelic force of singers like Layne Staley and Dolores O'Riordan.

Her debut album, Bare My Heart, was cowritten, produced & recorded with Ben Potter at Katula Creek studios in Nashville alongside the legendary Denny Martin. The album was released to a full house at the historic McFiler's Chehalis Theater, & will be featured on her upcoming tours in 2025. She's a regular at McFiler's Chehalis Theater, The Juice Box, Rhythms Coffeehouse, The Quincy, Endless Sounds Cellars & more.
