The president's Message

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Good evening my friends,

Once again, I am extending a warm welcome to you in our annual fund-raising gala. Further, on behalf of the association, I wish to reiterate our profound gratitude for this demonstration of support on your part. This motivates us tremendously towards accomplishing a lot more and better.

It's been about nine years since we've committed ourselves to this noble project. During that time, the challenges and the obstacles were very much part of the equation. Fortunately however, we have been able to answer to the call as we find ourselves contributing to the education of young students in Haiti. All the progress was made possible due to your active generosity. You have not relented in your participation and your support. This is the reason why I wholeheartedly applaud each and every one of you, individually, and further I invite you to share our pride in the quest of fulfilling what we consider a duty. What our association is attempting to accomplish is a droplet in a vast ocean of needs in Haiti, Education-wise. Hence, one of our dreams is to entrench ourselves in a position to inspire others to follow in a similar path.

As the needs multiply, our resolve amplifies accordingly. We have accepted to face this challenge because the cause is noble and more significant than any one of us in particular. Only together and united can we expect to accomplish anything of significance. Currently, our chief obstacle resides in the area of recruiting members as fervently dedicated as those from Boston who happen to be with us this evening and also those from Florida and Montreal.

At this moment, our main objective is to help in the reconstruction of the institutions that were destroyed during the earthquake of 2010. We want to participate in this effort by raising one million US dollars that we plan to capture starting this very moment until the celebration time of our tenth anniversary in 2013. We remain convinced that this is achievable and we are focused in the pursuit of this goal.

Thank you for your continuing support!

Enjoy the evening and may God bless you!

Herold Duroseau, M.D.
President, CCH-FSCAA NY

Le message du président

Mesdames et Messieurs,

Chers amis, Bonsoir,

Une fois de plus, je vous souhaite la bienvenue à notre gala annuel de levée de fonds. Je veux également réitérer notre gratitude pour ce témoignage de soutien à notre association. Cela nous sert de motivation pour faire beaucoup plus et mieux.

Cela fait maintenant neuf ans depuis que nous nous sommes engagés dans ce noble projet. Les défis et les obstacles n'ont pas manqué. Mais heureusement, nous avons pu répondre à l'appel en aidant à l'éducation de jeunes étudiants en Haïti. Tout cela a été rendu possible par votre générosité agissante; vous ne nous avez jamais marchandé votre concours et votre support. C'est pourquoi je prends plaisir à applaudir chacun de vous, en particulier, et je vous invite à partager notre fierté dans l'accomplissement de ce devoir. Ce que notre association essaie d'accomplir n'est qu'une petite goutte dans le vaste océan de besoins dans le domaine de l'éducation en Haïti. L'un de nos rêves est de pouvoir inspirer d'autres à s'engager sur le même chemin.

Au fur et à mesure que les besoins se multiplient, notre ambition s'élargit également. Nous avons accepté de relever ce défi parce que la cause est noble et plus grande que chacun de nous. Seulement ensemble et unis, pouvons-nous espérer réaliser quelque chose de valable. Actuellement, notre plus grand obstacle consiste à recruter de nouveaux membres dédiés à la cause avec autant de ferveur comme ceux de Boston, avec nous ce soir, de même que ceux de la Floride et de Montréal.

Notre principal objectif maintenant est d'aider à la reconstruction des établissements détruits lors du tremblement de terre de 2010. Nous voulons participer à hauteur d'un million de dollars US, que nous comptons recueillir à partir de maintenant jusqu'à la célébration de notre dixième anniversaire en 2013. Nous demeurons convaincus que c'est réalisable, et nous travaillons d'arrache-pied en ce sens.

Merci pour votre support continu!

Amusez-vous bien et que Dieu vous bénisse!

Hérold Duroseau, M.D.

Our One-Million-Dollar Goal

For the reconstruction of Canado-Haitian College & St John the Evangelist School

By Gerald Jean

“The meaning of Life lies in Serving. The value of Life is Giving”

Master Sheng Yen

It has been two years since the devastating earthquake had thumped our beloved Haiti. The losses were tremendous in every aspect and at every level. Many schools from the Frères du Sacré-Coeur network did not escape the dreadful punch thrown by this severe tremor.

This Sacred Heart network provides an excellent and much needed education to the youth and adults alike, throughout the country, in cities including Les Cayes, Miragoâne and Port-Salut. In Port-au-Prince the instructional services were delivered as follows to: the primary and secondary schools in Carrefour’s Novitiate (Juvénat), the primary and secondary schools at Pope Jean XXIII on Boulevard Harry Truman (Bicentenaire), the primary (daytime) and secondary schools (nighttime) at Saint John the Evangelist and the Canado-Haitian College. The latter two institutions mentioned here were flattened to the ground.

The Canado-Haitian College, considered as the flagship of the network, encompasses not only the secondary classical studies, the technical (vocational) studies, a cultural center for adults’ basic education, and it also provides classes, free of charge, to the “restaveks.” At this campus alone, thousands of people were affected. The faculty had to use and are still using makeshift classrooms to continue to provide this excellent education.

Faced with such a dire situation and with dismal resources available, to say the least, the current Canado-Haitian College director, young and dynamic Brother Augustin Nelson, took to the ground running. He traveled abroad seeking financial help - visiting Miami, New York and Boston. He attended events such as a class reunion in Miami, a CCH-FSCAA general assembly in New York and other events organized by the alumni in order to spread the message of the need for help. The reconstruction cost was estimated to be in the millions US dollars. So far, as a result of several requests, five (5) million US dollars are accounted for. Before the General Assembly took place in October of last year, the leadership of the CCH-FSCAA (Collège Canado-Haitien et Frères du Sacré-Coeur Alumni Association, Inc.) had set a goal of one (1) million dollars to be reached by May 2013 that we, the alumni, friends and supporters, must reach - reflecting our contribution to the reconstruction efforts. Such an endeavor requires the participation of all of us, regardless of generation, class (promotion) or school affiliation. We can do it. The gift of education is a gift that keeps on giving.

Your generous donation toward the reconstruction efforts can be made through our website:

Remember, no contribution is too small.

On behalf of the children we, at the CCH-FSCAA, thank you for your continuous support.

The students need a decent place to learn. Let's make it happen.

RIEN NE SE FERA SANS VOUS!

Par Ronald César

Comme disait Machiavelli “Les meilleures forteresses des tyrants représentent l’inertie des peuples.”

Comme disait l’Oncle:” Nous posâmes notre premier jalon en 2003, durant une rencontre d’anciens camarades des Frères du Sacré-Coeur. Nous avons décidé de très tôt que nos rencontres ne seraient pas des réunions pour resserrer nos liens d’amitié, où l’on se regarde les yeux dans les yeux, mais plutôt vers un même but. La philosophie de notre école était de faire de nous des citoyens responsables. Alors, comment accomplir quelque chose de tangible pour aider notre Alma Mater? Les discussions étaient sérieuses, parfois houleuses. On progressait lentement, mais sûrement. Les fondations de la CCH-FSCAA furent jetées et en 2004 nous fûmes reconnus d’utilité publique par le Département du Trésor américain ( IRS ) et par l’état de New York.

Nous montâmes aux créneaux

sachant que ce combat ne serait pas facile et que nous étions sur la bonne voie. Le découragement ne faisait pas partie de notre vocabulaire. Le seul motif était de faire sauter les verrous qui bloquent notre développement. La peur et l’échec n’étaient pas dans notre chemise et nous avons surmonté les obstacles. Notre phare était l’union autour de notre programme et aujourd’hui nous avons bouclé neuf ans d’existence, et en 2013 nous célébrerons notre dixième anniversaire.

Une étape est terminée et l’émancipation de nos jeunes se joue aujourd’hui. Nous devons continuer avec célérité la possibilité de financer l’intégralité de notre programme; l’irréalisme est de l’autre côté mais pas dans nos murs. A ceux qui hésitent, je le dis: c’est notre projet, votre projet qui doit être réalisé et une bonne action s’accomplira et survivra.

Je veux dire à tous les members de notre comité exécutif, à toutes celles et à tous ceux qui font la force de la CCH-FSCAA: BRAVO. Je salue votre énergie et passion du fond du coeur. Continuez sur la voie qui garantira à nos jeunes des lendemains meilleurs par une bonne éducation.

Rien ne se fera sans vous! A nos confrères d’Haïti, du Canada, de Massachusetts, de la Floride, de Promo 77, je dis: BRAVO, continuons main dans la main, ne brisez pas la chaîne, ouvrez plus grandes les portes du changement. On avance vers une nouvelle décennie et vous avez la clef du résultat final. Je vous appelle en toute conscience à assumer pleinement cette responsabilité.

Compliments à toutes celles et tous ceux qui, par leurs engagements, ont eu à donner corps à cette espérance et rendu possible le résultat d’aujourd’hui.

Votre participation nous motive!

The importance of Scholarships for CCH-FSCAA

By Harry Bloncourt

The obvious needs

In a modern and civilized society, access to Education is facilitated, organized and open. Unfortunately in Haiti, the privileged access to education is more of a struggle. However, the CCH-FSCAA believes strongly in the right to an education for all. After all, Education contributes greatly to the economic growth of a society and the social stability of an individual. We believe that significant investments must be made in terms of human capital to change the situation in Haiti.

It is true that we presently live in difficult times, but we must continue to invest in Haiti's future, particularly in the Haitian students. Especially since it is the presence or absence of a scholarship that can determine whether or not a bright student can reach his dream of a graduation. The future may indeed be very dark for those who cannot obtain adequate training because of lack of means. A scholarship is an opportunity to develop one's full potential, in order to improve skills and overall knowledge that can lead to achieving a palpable transformation.

You should know that in the current economic environment, the number of students who need financial support is growing every day. Currently, this growing demand for Education exceeds by far the growth rate of available resources to satisfy it. The CCH-FSCAA is therefore working to help students as much as possible with the financial obligations of their education. Hence our constant solicitation from you..

Meeting these needs

Ever since its creation in 2003, our non-profit organization has set a mandate to support the schools connected to the Brothers of the Sacred Heart with concrete actions in synch with students and teachers of these schools in Haiti.

Over the past eight years, this support has enabled us to promote excellence in education and to sponsor a wide range of activities for the academic and professional development of teachers and students in the network. It is important to mention that the Collège Canado-Haïtien is not the only beneficiary. We, among others, helped former teacher Mr. Bellabe with a contribution of $ 1,000 for his project "La consigne" conducted in the small town of Chantal, located in Southern Haiti.

Since 2006, financial support was also used to provide scholarships to students and teachers in order to stimulate their intellectual development. To date, we have provided about $50,000 (divided equally between academic and technical sections). We have helped over 100 students so far, all of which were extremely grateful for the support.

The organization also provided assistance with the acquisition of materials to improve the training structure and to contribute to a stimulating learning environment for students. We sent $1,500 for the Juvénat Carrefour establishment. We also honored a request from the Department of Music by sending musical instruments with a value of about $800.

We sincerely hope that the student who receives a scholarship today will become the donor of tomorrow. We therefore count on your generosity to help us continue our work efficiently. You've never held back, and for this boundless generosity that you continue to demonstrate, we thank you in advance.

The "Juvénat" School in Carrefour

The Canado Technical School (Center of Vocational Training of Haiti) in Turgeau

The Pope John XXIII School in Port-au-Prince

The St John The Evangelist School after the 2010 earthquake

I don't think you ever stop giving. I really don't. I think it's an on-going process. And it's not just about being able to write a check. It's being able to touch somebody's life.

Charlot Lucien

Par Marie-Evangeline Roussel et traduit de l'anglais par Mario Deller

Charlot Lucien

Charlot Lucien est présentement le coordonateur du Centre national d'assistance technique pour la santé des réfugiés aux Etats-Unis (National Refugee Health and Mental Technical Assistance Center) pour le Département de Santé Publique du Massachusetts. Il a administré plusieurs programmes de VIH/SIDA pour le même département dans les années 90, avant de superviser une subvention du Centre de Contrôle américain des Maladies (CDC) visant à fournir des soins de santé mentale aux Haïtiens affectés par le tremblement de terre de 2010. Il est aussi un consultant pour l'Alliance Française de Boston pour laquelle il gère un programme de français dans les Ecoles publiques de la ville. Son intérêt pour les affaires de sa communauté l'a porté à assister comme volontaire ou membre du conseil de direction (Board Member) de plusieurs organisations œuvrant en Haïti dans des domaines variés, tels Konbit Santé, Partners in Health (PIH), Haiti Projects et le Groupe de Développement de l'Ile-à-Vache (Tourisme). Il fait également partie du cercle dirigeant du "Groupe de Réflexion et d'Action pour une Haïti Nouvelle" (GRAHN) et du chapitre de la CCH-FSCAA, à Boston.

Comme président de la classe de Philo (1984), il a dû faire face à l'une des situations les plus difficiles de l'histoire du Canada : une grève des étudiants, heureusement de courte durée (3 heures). Plus tard, alors qu'il fréquentait l'INAGHEI (Institut National d'Administration, de Gestion et des Hautes Etudes Internationales), et la Faculté de droit, il se fit un nom dans les pages de plusieurs journaux haïtiens, notamment « Le Nouvelliste », comme caricaturiste et illustrateur.

Il émigra à Boston dans les années 1990, où il fonda l'Assemblée des Artistes Haïtiens du Massachusetts et collabora avec plusieurs institutions tels le Boston Center for the Arts, le Museum of Afro American Artists, le consulat haïtien de Boston et plusieurs universités de Massachusetts pour la promotion de l'art et de la culture haïtienne, de la peinture au conte traditionnel. Il a été à plusieurs reprises le conférencier principal ou le conteur invité dans des activités culturelles et académiques dans plusieurs villes des USA, à Montréal, Paris, Guadeloupe et Haïti, où il met toujours l'accent sur la culture, l'histoire d'Haïti et les relations historiques entre les Haïtiens et les Afro-Américains. Au cours de ces deux dernières années, on le retrouva très impliqué dans la levée des fonds visant à fournir du matériel aux artistes de Jacmel affectés par le tremblement de terre de 2010.

Charlot est surtout connu comme un conteur depuis la sortie de ses CDs: "Ti Oma" (2001), "Ti Cyprien" (2004), "Grann Dede" (2007), et plus récemment "Charlot Lucien, San Bri, San Kont" en Avril 2012. Son oeuvre a été acclamée par la critique. Feu Georges Anglade commenta en 2004, dans "L'espace d'une génération": "Dans la manière de Sixto, sur scène et sur CD, commence à se manifester une relève, dont Charlot Lucien que j'ai vu et entendu en prestation au Vermont, me semble le plus authentiquement aligné sur la lodyans". Ses histoires utilisent l'humour pour faire réfléchir sur la situation critique et difficile des laissés-pour-compte.

Il a reçu de nombreux prix officiels du Massachusetts State Legislature (Cultural Achievement), de la Caribbean Cultural Foundation (Prix Martin Luther King), de la municipalité (City Council) de Boston.

Charlot est l'heureux papa d'une fille, Malaika (16 ans), et d'un garçon, Sébastien (14 ans). Il réside à Norwood, dans le Massachusetts, avec sa conjointe, Evangéline Roussel, elle-même une diplômée de la promotion 1986 du Collège Canado-Haïtien.

Canado-Haitian Secondary School, Class of 1984

By Marie-Evangeline Roussel

Charlot Lucien

Charlot Lucien presently manages the National Refugee Health and Mental Technical Assistance Center for the Massachusetts Department of Public Health (MDPH), after a long period administering HIV/AIDS Programs for the same department, then overseeing a special mental health program and trauma recovery services funded by the US Center for Disease Control (CDC) for Haitian impacted by the Haiti 2010 earthquake. He also serves as a consultant for the US National Alliance of State and Territorial AIDS Director (NAS-TAD), helping with surveillance studies for the “Ministère de la Santé Publique et de la Population (MSPP)” in Haiti. He is the administrator of a French program in the Boston Public Schools for the French Cultural Center and serves as consultant for several organizations that offer various programs in Haiti, including Konbit Sante (health), Partners in Health, Haiti Projects and Ile-à-Vache Development Group (tourism). He is currently part of the leadership of the “Groupe de Réflexion et d’Action pour une Haïti Nouvelle” (GRAHN) and the CCH-FSCAA in Boston, MA.

As a former Collège Canado-Haitien class president (philo 1984), he worked with what was viewed as maybe the most challenging class the school has ever managed. The first students’ strike in the history of CCH -short-lived for 3 hours- took place in May 1984.

Later, attending the State University’s National Institute of Management and Administration (INAGHEI), Charlot made his name in the pages of several Haitian newspapers after 1986, as a caricaturist and an illustrator.

In Boston where he moved in the early 1990s, he founded the Haitian Artists’ Assembly of Massachusetts and worked as a consultant for several cultural organizations, such as the Boston Center for the Arts, the Museum of Afro American Artists, the Haitian American United Inc., and the Haitian Consulate of Boston to coordinate major cultural events and art exhibits. Over the past two years, his most recent cultural activities consisted in working with colleagues and local organizations in New England to raise funds to provide art supplies to Jacmel artists affected by the earthquake and help exhibit their works in the New England area.

Charlot has established himself as a master storyteller in Haiti and the Haitian Diaspora since the release of his CDs, “Ti Oma” in 2001, “Ti Cyprien” (2004), “Grann Dede” (2007) and most recently “Charlot Lucien, San bri, San kont” in April 2012. His work has been praised by critics everywhere. The late Georges Anglade commented in “L’espace d’une génération” (2004): “Dans la manière de Sixto, sur scène et sur CD, commence à se manifester une relève, dont Charlot Lucien que j’ai vu et entendu en prestation au Vermont, me semble le plus authentiquement aligné sur la lodyans.” Charlot’s stories muse on the plight of Haiti’s disenfranchised people with depth and wit and poke fun at what he calls “redundancy in absurdity” in some Haitian cultural and social quarters. As storyteller and a cultural guest speaker, he has presented in cultural and academic venues in several cities in the US, Montréal, Paris, Guadeloupe and Haiti, often emphasizing the historical ties between Haitians, the US and Black Americans.

He is the recipient of a number of awards in the US, including from the Massachusetts State Legislature (Cultural Achievement), the Caribbean Cultural Foundation (Martin Luther King Award), the Boston City Council, the Mayor of Boston (leadership role in the HIV/AIDS Planning Council).

Charlot is the father of Malaika (16) and Sébastien (14), and resides in Norwood Massachusetts with his conjointe Evangéline Roussel, herself a Collège Canado Haitien graduate, class of 1986.

Robert Moscoso

Par Régine Saurel Bernadel

C'est avec beaucoup d'émotion, de fierté et d'honneur que je présente aujourd'hui un honoré du huitième gala annuel de levée de fonds de la CCH-FSCAA, un camarade de promotion, Mr. Robert Moscoso.

Mr. Moscoso a fait de brillantes études secondaires au Collège Canado- Haïtien. Ceux qui se souviennent de Robert, et ils sont nombreux, gardent en tête l'image d'un étudiant courtois et poli, assidu et très appliqué, aimable avec ses camarades, respectueux envers ses professeurs, et toujours d'un calme exemplaire. La sagesse populaire déclare, avec raison, qu'il faut toujours se méfier de l'eau qui dort. En effet, sous ce calme, cette froideur apparente, se cachait un esprit brillant et vif. Il n'hésitait jamais, quand le besoin se faisait sentir, à se lancer dans des débats parfois houleux et des discussions profondes et intelligentes, toujours empreints de respect, au sein de cette promotion qui aspirait à changer le monde.

Après la Philo, il partit pour les Etats-Unis, plus précisément la Floride, pour poursuivre des études supérieures. Il décrocha sans effort un Baccalauréat en Génie Industriel. Mais ce n'était pas suffisant pour satisfaire cet esprit curieux et insatiable. Il retourna à l'école pour obtenir cette fois une maîtrise en Administration des Affaires ou Gestion d'Entreprise. Cependant sa plus belle réussite réside dans le fait qu'il arriva à épouser en 1987, Martine Flambert, elle-même une ancienne du Canado. Cette même année, il est nommé Président de la Auto Mécanique, SA, une entreprise familiale.

Sportif accompli, il est un mordru de tennis. Il a même rempli, avec compétence, en 1981, le rôle de Trésorier de la Fédération Haïtienne de Tennis. Il est également un fils de Neptune, c'est-à-dire un amant de la mer, et il est un capitaine de bateau chevronné.

Aujourd'hui, Robert Moscoso est le Président Directeur Général ( PDG ) de la Sogebank (Société Générale Haïtienne de Banque, SA ), l'une des deux plus grandes banques commerciales privées d'Haïti, avec un actif de $828 millions US et environ 2.000 employés. Il est en train de remplir sa fonction avec beaucoup de compétence, grâce aux talents et une formation intellectuelle hors pair acquise d'abord chez les frères du Sacré-Coeur.

Robert Moscoso est l'heureux père de trois enfants, et il est fier d'avoir été un étudiant du prestigieux réseau d'éducation des Frères du Sacré-Coeur. Nous, à la CCH-FSCAA, sommes fiers de le considérer comme l'un des nôtres et de lui présenter cet hommage public et mérité.

Robert Moscoso

Today we, again, are reunited for the CCH-FSCAA's 8th Annual Fund-Raising Gala and, it is with tremendous emotion, pride and honor that I introduce one of our honorees, a former classmate of mine, Mr. Robert Moscoso.

Mr. Moscoso completed an outstanding secondary cycle of studies at the Canado-Haitian College. Those of us who remember Robert, and many of us do, have mentally retained this clear picture of a courteous, polite, assiduous and very diligent student who was always nice to his fellow students and very respectful of his professors. His calmness and levelheadedness proved to be exemplary. Popular wisdom, truthfully so, declares that it is always prudent not to overly trust a still body of water. The words may apply to Robert's case but definitely in a rather positive way. In fact, under this calmness of his, this apparent aloofness, were concealed a brilliant mind and a lively spirit. Never has he hesitated, when necessary, to be involved in complex debates or intelligent and profound discussions with his peers who were animated with the aspiration to make the world a better place. All the above took place over the common denominator of Respect.

After he graduated from Canado, he emigrated toward the United States and settled in Florida in order to pursue Higher Education. Soon after, he captured a degree in Industrial Engineering. But this was not sufficient to satisfy this curious and insatiable spirit. He immersed himself right back into the ocean of Knowledge and re-emerged this time with a Masters Degree in Business Administration or Business Management. Nevertheless, the highlight of his life occurred, in 1987, when he wedded Martine Flambert herself a Canado alumna. That same year, he was named President of Auto Mechanique, Inc., a family business enterprise. Martine and Robert are the proud parents of three children.

At present, Robert Moscoso is the CEO of Sogebank (Haitian General Corporation of Bank, Inc.). The latter is one of the two largest private commercial banks in Haiti, with an asset of $828 million US and personnel of about 2,000 employees. He is performing his duties with competence and integrity which is also a reflection of the skills and outstanding intellectual formation acquired from the Brothers of Sacred Heart in earlier days. He, in turn, is very proud to have been a product of the prestigious educational network established by the Brothers of Sacred Heart.

Finally, as an accomplished sportsman, Mr. Moscoso is a passionate of the sports of Tennis. At some point, in 1981 to be precise, he even acceded to the position of Treasurer in the Haitian Tennis Federation. For good measure, he is also a son of Neptune that is to say he is a lover of the ocean and an experienced boat captain at that.

We, at CCH-FSCAA, are also proud to know Robert Moscoso as one of our own and to publicly bestow upon him this well-deserved homage.
