BIO

DREAM LIFESTYLE COACH, PODCASTER/SPEAKER,
WOC DEVELOPMENT CONSULTANT

Deneen is a high-energy and innovation-driven professional who excels at visioning, strategic planning, and program leadership to maximize the development of others. She leveraged her 20+ years of sales, project/program management, Diversity & Inclusion and leadership to launch Deneen Consults, her podcasting/speaking, coaching, consulting business. During the height of the pandemic, Deneen launched her global podcast which is also available on YouTube. Deneen is on several boards which include Detroit Community Sailing Center and The Gathering Spot-Detroit of which she is also a Founding Member. Deneen is passionate about elevating the voices of women of color and empowering WOC to Live a Dream Lifestyle.

Deneen was promoted into D&I to leverage talent acquisition, employee development, and sponsorship initiatives for diverse segments, she co-founded their 1st Inclusion Council and led projects impacting 200K employees.

Deneen rolled out a staff development and mentorship program that generated participant promotions, hosted career programs for college students, and led executive leadership tours. Her efforts more than doubled attendance of a panel she created which is now her podcast.

Deneen's corporate legacy is her contributions as the WOC Program Lead. In her first three months, she upgraded enterprise-wide continuous learning and, employee / social engagement for 200K. Deneen up-skilled allies and advocates for women of color by designing the strategy and directing the execution of programming to strengthen the long-term capabilities of women of color.

The Podcast

AN INTIMATE CONVERSATION WITH WOMEN OF COLOR

In 2017, Deneen created a panel to give LGBTQ+ WOC and Allies a platform to use their voices. Three years later, she decided to level up. On Good Friday in 2020, she Nike'd it and started the “An Intimate Conversation with Women of Color” podcast to provide WOC a platform to use their voices. Since then, “An Intimate Conversation” has evolved from a platform to a community and movement for WOC.

“An Intimate Conversation with Women of Color” is a podcast and YouTube channel.
