

2023 Louisiana Flute Society Festival
February 2023 ❖ Southeastern Louisiana University ❖ Hammond, LA

Middle School Young Artist Competition and High School Young Artist Competition

Competition Description

The Middle School Young Artist Competition is open to all aspiring flutists in grades 6-8. The High School Young Artist Competition is open to all aspiring flutists in grades 9-12. Pre-registration is recommended for these competitions. There will be two parts to these competitions.

Part One-Competition:

On the day of the festival, applicants will perform LIVE for a panel of judges, and may play repertoire of his or her choice. The selection must be no longer than 10 minutes. Piano accompaniment is not provided but is strongly encouraged when appropriate. One winner and one runner-up will be selected from each competition, and each will receive a cash prize: First prize: $100 Second prize: $50

Part Two-Master Class:

All winners of the competition will have the opportunity to perform in the Competition Winner's Masterclass with our guest clinicians. If the winner does not choose to play in the masterclass, the opportunity will be offered to the runner-up. The winners of the competition will be announced at the start of the Guest Artist Masterclass.

Competition Requirements

- Applicants may pre-register or register the day of the festival. Pre-registration is HIGHLY recommended.
- Performing with piano accompaniment is not required but strongly recommended. Applicants must provide their own pianist at their own expense. For recommendations of pianists, please contact the Competitions Coordinator.
- There is no fee to participate in this competition, but applicants are required to be a current member of the Louisiana Flute Society. Registration payment for the festival will pay annual membership dues.
- Performances will be open to all registered Louisiana Flute Festival participants.
- All judges' decisions are final.
