

Person-Centred Supports Policy

Policy statement

Inspire Person-centred policy ensures that Inspire will:

- Support you to meet your goals that are in your NDIS plan.
- We understand that people have different skills and qualities.

Inspire will:

- Put people first.
- Give high quality support to participants and their family.
- Focus on your strengths and abilities.

Inspire recognises that everyone is different and this may include:

- Race or ethnic background.
- Gender.
- Sexual orientation.
- Age.
- Religion.
- Values and beliefs.
- Support needs.

Inspire will:

- Treat everyone fairly and with respect.
- Ask you who you would like to help you to make decisions about your support plan if you want to.
- Assist you with completing timely referrals to support providers.
- Listen to you and help you to make your own choices.

- We will talk to you about risk and things that may concern you.
- We will support you to be safe.

Approval Date: August 11, 2023

Revision Version: 1.0

Next Review Date: August 11, 2024

Approved by: Tamara Frew-Wiese