

Ironside Duo in Concert

A passionate chamber musician, Dr. K Brandon Ironside performs regularly with his wife, collaborative pianist Dr. Kristen Ironside as part of the Ironside Duo in concerts and recitals around the US. Among many other positions, he serves as the concertmaster of the Arizona Pops Orchestra, and frequently performs with Greenville Symphony, Asheville Symphony, and the Charleston Symphony.

Kristen's work has given her performance opportunities across the United States and Europe. Based in Greenville, Kristen collaborates with guest artists, faculty, and students at the South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities (SCGSAH), Furman University, and Bob Jones University.
