

Hi fellow art lovers and artists

I am planning to run an Abstract painting workshop using cold wax, mixed media At Studio 42, Barcelona, Spain, during the week of 25-29 September 2019. I still have some spaces available and would love to have you join me. 10.00am to 4.00pm each day. This workshop includes some amazing tours around the beautiful city of Barcelona from 4.30pm to approximately 8pm.

Plus an opportunity for you to exhibit your works for one week in Studio 42, Barcelona, after the workshop.

This is a fantastic opportunity for you to get some quality professional development, tour many of the exciting galleries and museums of Barcelona with a local guide and exhibit your works in a professional centrally located gallery.

On Friday September 29, you will have the opportunity to gain valuable feedback on your work which will include how you might incorporate cold wax mixed media into your own ongoing body of work, whether you work in acrylic, water colour, inks or any other medium. Throughout this workshop I will be showing several short power point presentations on; Developing your Personal Voice; Understanding how the Elements of Design can work for you, tips and recommended texts. I will also be discussing how to take a different approach to developing creativity.

Workshop Description

This is a hands on workshop, participants will be focussing on a variety of techniques and be introduced to new ways of painting with or without a paintbrush. Many new skills will be demonstrated, whether you normally work in acrylic, oil, encaustic, cold wax, watercolour or inks, this workshop will enrich your current practice.

Participants can feel confident that they will come away with a sound knowledge of products, and their use, confidence in exploration, experimentation and creating contemporary abstract works of art.
