

Born and raised in the Pineywoods of East Texas, Nacogdoches native Cole Stephens had a love of music and guitars from a very young age. Following in the footsteps of his grandfather who sang gospel music and toured around the Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas areas, Cole sang in church and found a passion for music.

In high school, Cole fell in love with the Texas Country Music scene and frequented honky-tonks to see his favorite artists play. Cole was raised listening to southern gospel, 80's rock, and all varieties of country music. George Strait, Toby Keith, Alan Jackson, Tyler Childers,, Metallica, Bon Jovi, John Mayer, Van Halen, and Cross Canadian Ragweed are among his favorites.

Cole decided during his senior year of high school to pursue music and began writing his own songs. He recorded his first three original songs, including "Bonfire," the summer after graduation. Cole released his first two singles "Bonfire" and "I Could Use Some Rain" in April 2022. Cole's set includes a mix of original music and covers from 90's Country, Texas Country, and Mainstream Country. He has performed at Banita Creek Hall, The Backyard Waco, Dosey Doe Breakfast, BBQ and Whiskey Bar as well as other East Texas venues.

For more information on Cole Stephens and on booking, email cole@colestephensmusic.com or call 936-615-9056.

- Original releases "Bonfire" and "I Could Use Some Rain" available on Apple Music, Spotify, Amazon Music, & Deezer.
- Cole's latest single "Falling Apart" released October 7.

colestephensmusic.com

 COLE STEPHENS

