Dear Mr. Lopez:

This letter is in response to the petition you submitted seeking a Presidential pardon for your general court-martial conviction.

Our office retrieved the complete record of trial from the Navy's archiving facility and has forwarded the required documents, along with your pardon application, to the Office of the Pardon Attorney. The Office of the Pardon Attorney evaluates pardon petitions per 28 Code of Federal Regulations §§ 1.1 et. seq., and they will inform you of the President's decision. No action on your part is required at this time.

Sincerely,
