

Twinflower Books' FISH STORIES writing contest

Eligibility

Anyone residing or working in Chisago County, MN may enter this writing competition.

Individuals must be aged 13+ for the Poetry, Nonfiction, and Fiction categories.

Individuals must be in grades 4, 5, or 6 for the 2024-25 school year for the Young Storyteller category.

Categories

Four categories are offered for 2025:

- Poetry, ages 13+
- Nonfiction, ages 13+
- Fiction, ages 13+
- Young Storyteller, grades 4, 5, or 6

Requirements

The fish story must be original.

The fish story may be a poem, fiction, or nonfiction.

Students entering the Young Storyteller category may write a poem, fiction, or nonfiction and should indicate this at the top of their submission.

The fish story must be text only – no images may be used in the story. If images are submitted with the submission they will be removed before judging begins.

Length:

- Poems: no more than 200 words
- Nonfiction and Fiction: no more than 1,000 words

The fish story may not contain: 1) slanderous language; 2) defamation (of a person, product, brand, location, or region); 3) commercialized information about a product or company; 4) plagiarized material or content.

No purchase or donation is required to submit for this contest.

Judging Criteria

Two judges will review each submission against the scoring criteria. The scores from the two judges will be added to provide an overall score (maximum score points = 43). In the instance of a tie for the prize, a third judge will be asked to be a tie-breaker.
