“Old Houses of St George” Will be Repeated this Winter

The Historical Society has decided to present monthly programs via ZOOM starting in January of 2022. Because our members have shown so much interest in the ZOOM meetings, we thought we would begin our monthly programs after the holidays. We are guessing that any in-person meetings won't occur soon, so we will plan on ZOOM to help us keep in touch.

The Old Houses program in October was a big hit and it generated a lot of discussion, so we thought we would recycle it with some changes. The October meeting focused on some of the various ways to research the history of houses, but the next program will talk about some of the older houses in St George and what we know about them.

We will probably hold the monthly programs on the usual last Thursday of the month, and the topics for January, February and March will be Old Houses of St George, Clark Island and Albert S. Bickmore.

More information, such as dates and times, will be noted in the December 2021 newsletter.

“Then . . . and Now” in St George

Our Facebook page has been showing some photos, mostly from our collection of homes and buildings from the year 1898, alongside some recent photos of the same location. A lot of the photos have been of homes on Watts Avenue in Tenants Harbor, with some photos of businesses that used to be on Main St in Tenants Harbor.

Check out the next several pages for these “Then . . . and Now” photos.
