Notes on what's to come...

The trustees have plans to again continue the monthly programs – through Zoom – starting in January after taking off November and December for the holidays. If you have any items of local history that you'd like to have us cover, please let us know. We can do a Power Point presentation or have a panel discussion.

The Old Library Museum [OLM] will not be open during the winter months on a regular basis, but we can be open by appointment. If you'd like to stop by, either call 207-372-2231 and leave a message, or send us an email. We'll get right back to you. We will be open on Saturdays again during the summer season starting at the end of May 2023.

We're launching public access to our collection starting September 29th. You can access the collection at www.stgeorgehistory.com – our website! The link will take you to a page that will show you how to search the collection. We have close to 3000 images currently in the on-line, plus about 350 book titles in our library! We will be adding to the on-line collection throughout the winter – we have lots of things to add!

We will be planning our 2023 programs soon, so be sure to drop us a line about any topics or programs you'd like to see. We try to conduct a walking tour during the month of July. In the past these have included walking tours of Tenants Harbor, the cemeteries, etc. There have also been discussions about having other walking tours on weekends during the summer, as everyone seems to enjoy them.

The Andrew Robinson Homestead committee will begin their plans for the 2023 season, so be sure to let them know what you'd like to see!

- Thanks to Christina MacDonald for the donation of a tea caddy – with a hidden compartment – and photos of Isaac Gilcrest (died in a foreign port in the 1860s) and his mother, or maybe his mother-in-law.
- Thanks to Diane Hall for the donation of a large wooden file desk for oversized documents, plus the many other items she brings in from time to time.
- Thanks to Beth Billik for a large screen TV and a video player/recorder.
- Thanks to Judy Smalley for an old pottery jug, and old dish (both from the old Fogerty house at Fogerty Corner), and several old letters and receipts from the Smalley & Fogerty families.
- Thanks to those who have helped man the Old Library Museum during the summer months, and those to have volunteered to help with this for next year.
- Thanks to all the volunteers at the Andrew Robinson Homestead – great programs this year!
- And thanks to everyone else – who I can't think of at this time - who have helped us preserve the history of this town! We can't do it without your support!!!

Thanks!!!
