

BYLAWS
OF
COMANCHE CLIFFS HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

NAME AND LOCATION

Section 1.01. The principal offices and facilities of the corporation shall be located in Kerr County, Texas, but meetings of Members and directors may be held at such places within the State of Texas, as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 1.02. The corporation shall not change the location of the offices or facilities without the concurrence of the entire Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

The terms used in these Bylaws shall be as defined in that certain Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (the "Declaration") applicable to the Properties therein described recorded in the Deed Records of Bandera County, Texas, and as the same may be amended or supplemented from time to time as therein provided, declared and established by Comanche Cliffs Development Company, the terms and provisions of which Declaration are incorporated herein by this reference and made a part hereof for all purposes unless a different meaning or intent clearly appears from the context hereof.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

Section 3.01. Every person or entity who is now or hereafter becomes an Owner shall automatically be a Member of the corporation, subject to the terms and provisions of the Declaration, including without limitation the obligation to pay assessments, as therein provided. Membership shall be appurtenant to and not be separated from ownership of any Lot.

Section 3.02. The corporation shall have two classes of voting membership:

ARTICLE IV

PROPERTY RIGHTS AND RIGHTS OF ENJOYMENT OF THE COMMON PROPERTIES

Section 4.01. Each Member and each tenant of each Member who resides on a Lot and each individual who resides with either of them or who is the guest of either of them, respectively, shall be entitled to the use and enjoyment of the Common Properties and facilities in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Declaration and subject to any applicable rules and regulations that may be adopted from time to time by the board of directors of the corporation.

Section 4.02. Such Member shall notify the Secretary of the corporation in writing of the name of any person or tenant residing on such Member's Lot or of the name of any guest of a Member or person or tenant residing on such Member's Lot. The rights and privileges of any such persons are subject to suspension under Article III hereof, to the same extent as those of the Member.

ARTICLE V

DIRECTORS

Section 5.01. The management and control of the affairs, activities and property of the corporation shall be vested in the board of directors which may exercise all such powers of the corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation, and by these Bylaws or by the Declaration prohibited. The power and authority of the board of directors shall include, but shall not be limited to, the power and authority:

(a) to establish, levy and assess, and collect the assessments referred to in Article III hereof;

(b) to adopt and publish or cause to be published rules and regulations governing the use of the Common Properties and facilities and the personal conduct of the Members, the tenants of the Members, the persons residing with either of them, and the guests of either of them, respectively;

(c) to declare the office of a Member of the board of directors to be vacant in the event such Member shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the board of directors;

(d) to employ managers, independent contractors, or such other employees of the corporation as it may deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties;

(e) to suspend the voting right and right to use of the Common Properties of a Member (including those of a tenant of such Member, any persons residing with such Member as tenant and any guest of such Member or tenant) during any period in which such Member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment levied by the corporation. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days for infraction of published rules and regulations;

(f) to exercise for the corporation all powers, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this corporation and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation or the Declaration.

It shall be the duty of the board of directors:

(a) to cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the Members at the annual meeting of the Members or at any special meeting, when such statement is requested in writing by one-fourth (1/4) of the entire voting membership who are entitled to vote;

(b) to supervise all officers, agents and employees of this corporation, and to see that their duties are properly performed;

(c) as more fully provided herein and in the Declaration:

(1) to fix the amount of the annual assessment against each Lot at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period;

(2) to cause written notice of each assessment to be sent to every Owner subject thereto at least thirty (30) days in advance of each annual assessment period;

(3) to collect the assessments assessed against each Lot; and

(4) to foreclose the lien against any property for which assessments are not paid within thirty (30) days after due date or to bring an action at law against the owner personally obligated to pay the same;

(d) to issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether any assessment has been paid. A reasonable charge may be made by the board for the issuance of these certificates. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of any assessment therein stated to have been paid;

(e) to procure and maintain adequate liability and hazard insurance on property owned by the corporation;

(f) to cause the assessment proceeds to be expended for maintenance of the Common Properties and related activities consistent with the purpose of the assessment as described in Article V, Section 2 of the Declaration;

(g) to cause all officers or employees of the corporation having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate;

(h) to perform or cause to be performed the duties of the Architectural Control Committee in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Declaration; and

(i) to cause the Common Properties to be maintained.

Section 5.02. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole Board shall be three (3). The board of directors shall always consist of at least three (3) directors. Within such limit, the number of directors may be increased or decreased by amendment to these Bylaws. The directors constituting the first board of directors, as named in the Articles of Incorporation shall hold office until the first annual meeting of the Members, unless sooner displaced, and thereafter the directors shall be elected in the manner hereinafter provided and for a term of one (1) year. Each director shall hold office until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and shall serve without compensation except for reimbursement for actual expenses.

Section 5.03. If any vacancies occur in the board of directors caused by death, resignation, retirement, disqualification or removal from office of any director or otherwise, or any new directorship is created by any increase in the authorized number of directors, a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, may choose a successor or successors, or fill the newly created directorship, and the directors so chosen shall hold office for the unexpired term of their predecessor or, if there be no predecessor, until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified, unless sooner displaced.

Section 5.04. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if prior to such action a written consent thereto is signed by all Members of the board or of such committee as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee.

Section 5.05. Directors shall be elected by the Members qualified to vote, as determined by the board of directors, at the annual meeting of the Members, and Members holding one-tenth (1/10th) of the votes entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. The vote of the majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the Members present, or represented by proxy at the meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the Members meeting. Cumulative voting is expressly prohibited.

Section 5.06. The first meeting of each newly elected board of directors shall be held without further notice, immediately following the annual meeting of the Members, and at the same place, unless by the consent of a majority of directors then elected and serving such time or place shall be changed.

Section 5.07. The board of directors of the corporation may hold meetings, both regular and special, either within or without the State of Texas.

Section 5.08. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice at such time and place as shall from time to time be determined by the board.

Section 5.09. Special meetings of the board of directors may be called by the president on twenty-four (24) hours notice to each director, delivered either personally, by mail or by telegram; special meeting shall be called by the president or secretary in like manner and on like notice upon the written request of two directors. Except as may be otherwise expressly provided by statute, or by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any special meeting need be specified in a notice or waiver of notice.

Section 5.10. At all meetings of the board of directors a majority of the number of directors fixed by these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Declaration. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the board of directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Section 5.11. The board of directors shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings. The minutes shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

Section 5.12. Nomination for election to the board of directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a chairman, and two or more Members of the corporation. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the board of directors prior to each annual meeting of the Members, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting and such appointment shall be announced at each annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the board of directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nominations may be from among Members or non-members.

ARTICLE VI

MEMBERS

Section 6.01. The annual meeting of the Members of the corporation for the election of directors commencing in the year 1987 shall be held on the first Tuesday in November of each year at 10:00 A.M. at the offices of the corporation. Special meetings of the Members may be called by the president, the board of directors or by Members of either class of Members having not less than one-tenth (1/10th) of the votes of either class of Members entitled to be cast at such meeting.

Section 6.02. No notice of the annual meeting of the Members of this corporation shall be required. Written notice of a special meeting of the Members stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be sent to each Member entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of such meeting.

Section 6.03. One-tenth (1/10th) of the Members qualified to vote and present in person or represented by proxy shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Members for the transaction of business, except as may be otherwise provided by law, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or these Bylaws. If, however, a quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the Members, the Members present in person or represented by proxy shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. When a quorum is present at any meeting of the Members, the vote of a majority of the Members qualified to vote and present in person or represented by proxy shall decide any question properly brought before such meeting, unless a greater number is required by law, the Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation or of these Bylaws.

Section 6.04. Each Member's voting rights are subject to suspension in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration and these Bylaws.

Section 6.05. A Member may vote in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Member or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable, and in no event shall it remain irrevocable for a period of more than eleven (11) months from the date of its execution.

Section 6.06. Any action require by any statute to be taken at a meeting of the Members, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Members, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the Member required to vote affirmatively with respect to the subject matter thereof, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as the required affirmative vote of Members.

ARTICLE VII

NOTICES

Section 7.01. Whenever under the provisions of the statutes or of the Articles of Incorporation or of these Bylaws, notice is required to be given to any person, it shall not be construed to require personal notice but such notice may be given in writing, by mail or telegram, addressed to such person at such address as appears on the books of the corporation, and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when the same shall be deposited in the United States mail properly addressed with postage thereon paid.

Section 7.02. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the statutes or of the Articles of Incorporation or of these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to said notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent thereto.

Section 7.03. Attendance of any Member or director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director or Member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE VIII

OFFICERS

Section 8.01. The officers of the corporation shall be appointed by the directors and shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The board of directors may also appoint additional Vice Presidents, and one or more Assistant Secretaries and Assistant Treasurers. Two or more offices may be held by the same person, except that the offices of President and Secretary shall not be held by the same person. The officers shall serve without compensation and shall be appointed at such time and in such manner and for such terms not exceeding one (1) year as determined by the board of directors from time to time.

Section 8.02. The board of directors may appoint such other officers and agents as it shall deem necessary who shall hold their offices for such term and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be determined from time to time by the board.

Section 8.03. The officers of the corporation shall hold office until their successors shall be appointed and shall qualify. Any officers appointed by the board of directors may be removed at any time by the board of directors. If the office of any officer becomes vacant for any reason, the vacancy may be filled by the board of directors.

Section 8.03. The president shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors. He shall have the power to call special meetings of the directors, make and sign deeds, mortgages, contracts and agreements in the name of and on behalf of the corporation and he shall generally do and perform all acts incident to the office of the president, all of which shall be subject to the direction and review of the board of directors. In addition to the powers and duties of this Section 8.04, the president shall perform such other duties as the board of directors shall prescribe.

Section 8.05. The vice president shall, in the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the president. He shall also generally assist the president and exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as are delegated to him by the president and as the board of directors shall prescribe.

Section 8.06. The secretary shall attend all meetings of the Members and the board of directors and record all proceedings of the meetings of the corporation in a book to be kept for that purpose. He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors or the president, under whose supervision he shall be. He shall keep in safe custody the seal of the corporation and, when authorized by the board of directors, affix the same to any instrument requiring it and, when so affixed, it shall be attested by his signature or by the signature of the treasurer or an assistant secretary, which may be a facsimile. In general, he shall perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and such other duties as may, from time to time be assigned to him by the board of directors or by the president.

Section 8.07. The assistant secretary, unless otherwise determined by the board of directors, shall, in the absence or disability of the secretary, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the secretary. He shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the board of directors may from time to time prescribe.

Section 8.08.

(a) The treasurer shall be financial officer of the corporation; shall have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds of the corporation and all securities owned by the corporation; shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the corporation; and shall deposit all such funds and other valuable effects in the name of and to the credit of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the board of directors. In general, the treasurer shall perform all duties incident to the office of treasurer, and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the board of directors, or by the president.

(b) The treasurer shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board of directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the president and the board of directors, when the board of directors so requires, an account of all his transactions as treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation.

(c) If required by the board of directors, the treasurer shall give the corporation a bond (which shall be renewed every six years) in such sum and with such sureties as shall be satisfactory to the board of directors for the faithful performance of the duties of his office and for the restoration to the corporation, in case of his death, resignation, retirement or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money and other property of whatever kind in his possession or under his control belonging to the corporation.

Section 8.09. The assistant treasurer shall, unless otherwise determined by the board of directors, in the absence or disability of the treasurer, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the treasurer. He shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the board of directors may from time to time prescribe. The assistant treasurer shall, if required by the board of directors, give the corporation such bond as provided in Section 8.08 for the treasurer.

ARTICLE IX

COMMITTEES

Section 9.01. The board of directors of the corporation, by a majority vote of the board of directors, shall designate five (5) persons to serve upon a standing Nominating Committee as provided in these Bylaws, three (3) of whom shall be Members of the board of directors and shall designate representatives to perform the duties and exercise the authority of the Architectural Control Committee, as provided in the Declaration.

Section 9.02. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by the majority of the board, designate an Executive Committee, to consist of two (2) or more of the directors of the corporation. The Executive Committee, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors in the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law. The Executive Committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report on its proceedings to the board of directors when required. The minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee shall be placed in the minute book of the corporation.

Section 9.03. The present or the board may designate one or more other committees, each to have the name, membership, duties and responsibilities designated by the present or the board. Such other committees shall consist of a chairman and other Members, none of whom need be Members of the board, except where otherwise directed at the time of the creation of any such committee.

Section 9.04. Each such committee shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and all committees shall report to the board of directors when required. A majority of the Members of any such committee shall constitute a quorum and questions shall be decided by a majority vote.

Section 9.05. Members of the committees shall hold office until their successors are chosen and qualify. Vacancies in the membership of any committee for any reason, shall be filled by the party designating and appointing Members to such committee as herein provided.

ARTICLE X

GENERAL

Section 10.01. All checks or demand for money and notes of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers or such other person or persons as the board of directors may from time to time designate.

Section 10.02. The corporate seal shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation and the words "Corporate Seal, State of Texas," and may have inscribed thereon the year of its organization. The seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 10.03. The fiscal year of the corporation shall be as determined by the board of directors.

Section 10.04. Any conflict between one or more provisions of these Bylaws and one or more provisions of the Articles of Incorporation shall be resolved in favor of the provisions set forth in the Articles of Incorporation. Any conflict between one or more provisions of these Bylaws and one or more provisions of the Declaration shall be resolved in favor of the provisions set forth in the Declaration.

Section 10.05. The corporation shall have the power to indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation for expenses and costs (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with any claim asserted against him, by action in court or otherwise, by reason of his being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought. If the corporation has not fully indemnified him, the court in the proceeding in which any claim against such director or officer has been asserted, or any court having the requisite jurisdiction of an action instituted by such director or officer on his claim for indemnity, may assess indemnity against the corporation, its receiver, or trustee, for the amount paid by such director or officer in satisfaction of any judgment or in compromise of any such claim (exclusive in either case of any amount paid to the corporation), and any expenses and costs (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection therewith to the extent that the court shall deem reasonable and equitable, provided, nevertheless, that indemnity may be assessed under this section only if the court finds that the person indemnified was not guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.

ARTICLE XI

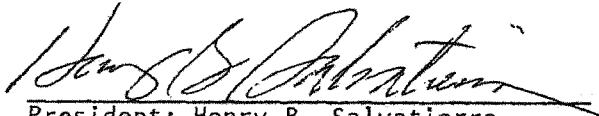

AMENDMENT TO BYLAWS

These bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed by the Members, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Members who are present and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present; provided, that any such alteration, amendment or substitute bylaws shall be consistent in all respects with the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation and provided that the power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws may be delegated by the Members to the board of directors.

(Note added not official Bylaw): The vote of only those members present at the meeting, apparently no Proxy or mail-in

AMENDMENT TO DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

THIS AMENDMENT TO DECLARATION OF COVENANTS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS (this "Supplemental Declaration") made as of the 9th day of May, 1987;

WITNESSETH:

A. Comanche Cliffs Development Company has heretofore executed and acknowledged that certain Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions (the "Declaration"), dated May 21, 1985, covering certain real estate and premises situated in Bandera County, Texas, which is more particularly referred to and described therein and has caused the Declaration to be filed in the office of the County Clerk of Bandera County, Texas, in Volume 260, Page 719, et seq., of the Official Public Records of Bandera County, Texas.

B. The Declaration provides it may be amended by two-thirds of the Members of each class entitled to vote at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

C. The Comanche Cliffs Homeowners Association, a Texas Corporation organized under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, held a called meeting on May 9, 1987, at which a quorum was present and at which two-thirds of each class of Members present approved an amendment to the Declaration to prohibit manufactured housing.

NOW, THEREFORE, under and pursuant to the terms, covenants and provisions of the Declaration the Comanche Cliffs Homeowners Association acting by and through its duly authorized officer (i) hereby certifies that the approval required by the provisions of the Declaration to amend the Declaration was obtained and given at the meeting of the Members of such Association duly called and held for such purposes and (ii) hereby declares and sets forth the amendment of the Declaration to be and read as follows, so that the Declaration is hereby amended as follows:

"Notwithstanding any provisions of the Declaration to the contrary the Properties and each Lot situated therein, as defined in the Declaration, shall be occupied and used subject to, and shall be subject to, the covenant and restriction that no mobile homes, modular homes or manufactured housing shall be permitted on or used on any of the Lots or other portions of the Properties, except only the existing mobile home now located on Lot 51 but only for so long as such mobile home on Lot 51 remains thereon (such exception terminating upon the removal of such mobile home from said Lot 51)."

The terms, provisions, covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in and made the subject of the Declaration are hereby reaffirmed and agreed to be in full force and effect, subject to the amendment set forth herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Comanche Cliffs Homeowners Association has caused this Amendment to be executed in its name and on its behalf by its duly authorized officer as of the 9th day of May, 1987.
