

Pray • Give • Go

Hello,

Last year, I watched a woman who had never shared her faith confidently lead someone to Christ for the very first time. Just weeks later, she was training other women to do the same. That is the power of multiplication — and it is why I serve as a missionary with One Mission Society through Dynamic Women in Missions.

My calling is to equip women around the world to become bold, confident disciple-makers. Through “Seed Sower” evangelism and our “Train the Trainer” model, I teach women how to clearly share the Gospel, tell their personal testimony, and lead others to Christ. But we don’t stop there — we train them to train others. When one woman is equipped, she reaches her family, neighbors, and church. As she trains others, the Gospel multiplies and local churches are strengthened long after I leave.

In addition, I serve on medical and dental mission teams in underserved communities, including areas without running water and among refugee populations. Every clinic partners directly with a local church. Each patient receives compassionate care, hears a clear presentation of the Gospel, and is connected to ongoing discipleship through that church. Our goal is not just outreach — it is lasting spiritual growth rooted in the local body of Christ.

In April, I will be traveling to Mexico to train women from both Mexico and Cuba in the “Train the Trainer” model so they can return home prepared to multiply disciples and strengthen their churches. This is strategic, reproducible ministry designed to create sustainable impact.

To continue going where God sends me, I am seeking additional monthly ministry partners. I am trusting the Lord to raise faithful supporters who will stand with me in prayer and financial partnership. Monthly gifts of $25, $50, or $100 help provide travel, training materials, and ministry expenses, allowing women around the world to be equipped as disciple-makers.

Would you prayerfully consider partnering with me on a monthly basis? Together, we can equip women to share the Gospel, multiply disciples, and strengthen churches globally.

I would love the opportunity to meet with you personally to share more about what God is doing and how you can be part of it.

Thank you for your prayer, encouragement, and partnership in advancing the Gospel
