Who Do You Say I Am?

All through this Covid-19 pandemic, I have been forced to get closer to God. Now, I do not mean for that to represent a bad thing, though. I have found that the time I would have spent in other places, I would not have enjoyed the time better than in my prayer closet. I certainly hope that you have found a little bit of extra time to spend with the Father. I guarantee and promise that each second you spent with The Father, via meditating the Bible, Praying in Tongues, Confessing the Word, Worshipping in your Inner Sanctuary, or Fasting was not in vain. Every second you spent in His presence brought you closer to Him by showing you and teaching you your calling. You cannot spend a second in His presence without it changing you. Let me remind you that the time you spend with Him means nothing. Do not get upset with me, now. Continue to read on—The TIME you spend, from 1 hour a week to four or more hours a day, will not MOVE God. You could spend 24 hours a day praying in tongues and it would not MOVE God. Understand this, what matters with God or MOVES Him the most, if you will, is the change that takes place in your life. It may take one person spending one hour a week with The Father to change his life for God to be able to work through him. Or it may take 168 hours a week to see change in your life, however long it takes—time means nothing—God will embrace you in the change in your life. He acknowledges your change! In fact, years ago, the Lord prompted me to say this in one of my messages to our church in Elkhart, Kansas:

"Through the Holy Spirit, God values you and loves you with everything He has, but He does not acknowledge the amount of time you spend with Him. He embraces you and hugs you in your change"

I sincerely hope you have spent lots of time with The Father during this time of the Corona Virus and come to the realization of Who Jesus is to you.

It was during this time being alone with the Father, that my Confessions started to change. I had been watching a lot of Pure Flix movies and shows and one program started working on my inner man. In this show, the man playing Jesus, would always ask the people he was interacting with this question: "WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?"

In my confessing time, I slowly started to change my view of who Jesus really was. It makes a big difference in a person's life if you know who Jesus is in your life, what He does in your life, and how He is portrayed in your life. So, I asked the question as if Jesus, Himself, would ask.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my savior.

See how easy it would be to start worshiping Him in just this one thing, thanking The Father for giving His Only Begotten Son that when I believed on Him, I would not perish, but have everlasting life. Father, I thank you for sending Your Son into the world, not to condemn me, but that through Him, I might be saved.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my healer.

Everyone who knows me knows that I have had many things go wrong in my body. Two heart attacks, Sugar Diabetes, Cataracts, spots on my right kidney, Idiopathic Pulmonary Fibrosis, COPD, Emphysema, Neuropathy, and Diverticulitis.

Again, those who know me, know that I have been healed from many of those things and I am still confessing my healing in the others.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my Provider.

Father, You supply all my needs according to Your Glory by Christ Jesus. Not one need is left unmet. Our bank accounts are full, our bills are payed, our cabinets, pantry, freezer, and refrigerator are full of food, our closets and chest of drawers are full of clothing, our house is payed for, our vehicles in the driveway are payed for, our debts are paid, and there is no need I have that He won't meet.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my Peace.

I used to toss and turn in bed, I used to get up throughout the night to visit the restroom, I used to hear every noise in the neighborhood, especially the silence. I used to worry about things concerning my family, my finances, and my job. Notice I said, USED TO. Now, I sleep throughout the night and wake up bright-eyed and bushytailed and hit the floor praising and worshipping the Father. I attribute the change to spending lots of valuable time with The Father.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my Wisdom.

I have always been one to think of myself as an intelligent person. I know there are those of you who would question that. I also know that God's intelligence out-weighs anything man could ever accomplish. Wisdom is a lot different than wisdom. In my confessions, I am incredibly careful to ask The Father to give me knowledge and understanding of His Word. I want to know His Word, I want to understand His Word, and who would not? But, now, in my confessing, I always ask Him to give me the Wisdom to use His Word in my life and the lives of those who I come into contact.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my Truth.

I would be a fool if I did not want the Truth. Now, understand this, there are at least two truths. First, the deceiving truth—man's truth. This is the truth that after being diagnosed with a deadly disease, the doctor shows you x-rays and gives his prognoses and the enemy starts a full-fledged war within you. You are probably saying that this is the truth and you would not be totally wrong.

The only thing is there is a second truth—God's Truth—His Word—His Word says that by His Stripes, we were healed! By Jesus being my Truth, I can tell man's truth to "take this diagnosis and shove it."

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Jesus, You are my Savior. Jesus, You are my Healer.

Jesus, You are my Provider. Jesus, You are my Peace.

Jesus, You are my Wisdom. Jesus, You are my Truth.

Jesus is the Rose of Sharon, the Bright and Morning Star, The Mighty Counselor, The Lion of Judah, and The Lamb slain before the foundations of the world. My Redeemer, my Advocate, and my Friend. Please ask Him into your heart!

IN HIS SERVICE,

Pastor C
