III. Permission and Release

A. ACF Chef and Child Agreement & Waiver:

I understand that my child will be in an industrial kitchen that does not have the same safeguards as a home kitchen. He/she will be around stoves, ovens, burners, and sharp equipment including knives. I agree that ACF Chef and Child, its Officers, Board of Directors, Administrators, employees, agents and staff are not responsible, nor liable, for accidents, loss, damage, death, delay or expense arising from acts of God, terrorism, wars, strikes, quarantine, weather irregularity, equipment failure, vehicle accidents, government restrictions or regulations, nor is responsible for illness from food or otherwise, detention, assault, theft or criminal activity or annoyance. I agree to release and hold harmless ACF Chef and Child, it's officers, trustees, agents and employees, and agree to indemnify each of them from any and all claims, cost suits, actions, judgments and expenses, upon any damage, loss or injury to my child or damage to my child's property arising out of my child's participation in this activity.

Late Pick-Up:

The camp ends at 4:00pm each day. Please understand that when a parent is late picking up their child, we must have at least two instructors remain at the site for the safety of your child. These instructors must be compensated for their time and this can ultimately causes an increase in our program fees; there is a twenty-five minute grace time. Fees apply beginning at 4:30pm

- A $10 late fee (per child) is charged starting at 4:30pm. After 5:30pm pickup, you will be charged a late fee of $25.

TRANSPORTATION:

Please ask about transportation from home to camp and/or camp to home.

C. Photo Release:

Several outside publications and Television Networks approach ACF for last minute stories and publications. I hereby give my permission for my child's picture to be used by ACF Chef and Child publications or video, and Third Party publications running stories in publication or video.

F. Camper Code of Conduct:

In order to maintain a safe and fun environment ACF Chef and Child requires parents and campers to read and understand the importance of following the code of conduct.

DRESS CODE:

Campers should be dressed both comfortably and safely in case of food and heat contact because the kitchen can be a dangerous place. If for any reason a camper is not dressed appropriately, he/she may be asked to sit out due to safety precautions.

- Campers must wear closed toed comfortable shoes (i.e. clogs, crocs, tennis shoes) to protect their feet. Please no flip-flops, sandals or ballet shoes, etc.
- No Tank Tops with drawstrings or shirts with loose sleeves. Shorts should come to knees.
- No Jewelry.
- Campers will be given a culinary kit that is theirs to keep; however, the kit should remain at the campsite until the last day of camp.
- White apron and hat (provided by camp)
- T-Shirt will be provided to campers and must be worn day of field trip(s)
- NO CELL PHONES, IPODS, GAMES, etc. in the kitchen or at workstations.
- All disagreements between children, staff or volunteers should be brought to the attention of the director, Chef Lisa McKay.
- Parents/guardians should not approach any child due to conflict.
- Campers must show respect towards all others while at camp; this includes other campers, volunteers and instructors. BULLYING WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

A Note on Camper Conduct: ACF Chef and Child reserves the right to dismiss a camper at any time because of a violation of camp rules or because of disruptive personal conduct which interferes with the safety or welfare of the individual or others. No refunds will be made. We have an open door policy. Please feel free to visit the campsite at any time.

My child and I have read and reviewed the code of conduct.
