Fantastic Offer HUARAZ

Description

Huaraz, known as the "Peruvian Switzerland," is a breathtaking city at 10,000 feet in the Andes, ideal for adventurers and nature lovers. With stunning landscapes, towering mountains, and serene lagoons, it offers a vibrant Andean culture and friendly locals.

Key highlights include Pukaventana, a viewpoint with panoramic views of Macashca village, and Rataquenua, which showcases Huaraz city and Huaylas Valley. History lovers can explore the ancient Wilcahuain temple and the picturesque Llanganuco lagoon in Huascarán National Park, accessible via a two-hour trek.

Visitors will be struck by the turquoise waters of Laguna Parón at 4,180 meters and can choose from hikes like Laguna 68 for breathtaking sights or the more moderate Laguna Churup for acclimatization. For the adventurous, climbing Nevado Mateo at 5,150 meters offers an exhilarating experience. Huaraz is a destination full of natural beauty and rich culture waiting to be explored!
