SENDING HOPE TO A SCHOOL IN TANZANIA

For the Oct./Nov. mission project, the Elmwood and Murdock churches will be sponsoring students in the Tumaini (Hope) Evangelistic Primary School in Kiruani, Tanzania. This five-building school provides more than 200 young students with transportation, two meals per day and education focused on math, science and reading curriculum led by nine teachers. The school also provides morning worship and a weekly Bible class. Most families cannot afford the cost of education for their children, so the school is supported through Blessed2BlessU Ministries in Fremont, NC (led by a Methodist minister) and through donations from other churches and groups. The cost to sponsor one child for one year at Tumaini school is $360. We hope to collect enough cash donations through this mission project to support two or three students. Please consider making a donation to support students at Tumaini School in Tanzania.

SPECIAL MUSIC ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2023

The Preschool children of Son Shine Day Care will be presenting a short musical program at the St. Paul worship service on November 12, 2023. You won't want to miss this special presentation.

A PRAYER OF THANKS By Helen Steiner Rice

*Thank you, God, for the beauty around me everywhere,
The gentle rain and glistening dew, the sunshine and the air,
The joyous gift of feeling the soul's soft, whispering voice
That speaks to me from deep within and makes my heart rejoice.*

PASTOR'S PEN

Happy November friends! The days are shorter, the weather is colder and it is so wonderful! You all know how much I love Fall and Winter! You can practically smell the snow in the air. 😊 I feel like as soon as I get one newsletter letter complete, Carol is asking for another. I am not sure how that is possible but somehow here we are at the beginning of a new month.

November is seen as many things: a month of thankfulness, a month where harvest is completed, hunting season, and maybe a month of no shaving. It is also the official beginning of the holiday season. I know I have talked about my great love for Thanksgiving in past newsletters but it is hard to talk about November without my mouth watering. Just thinking of the feast that we are rewarded with at the end of the month.

Eight years ago this month on the week of Thanksgiving, I was in the hospital giving birth to our second son. We thought we were prepared for what was to come. I mean we already had one baby boy, and we had kept him alive for almost two years at this point. This had to prove that we knew 100% what we were doing and that we could handle another one. I knew that they say that each child is different but again how different could he be? He is also half me and half Nick just as Emerson is; it will be close enough. Oh, how wrong we were. Earl is a different creature entirely from Emerson. My little Thanksgiving monster has been keeping us on our toes for the last 8 years. It has been an adventure, one that I would not change for the world. However, he also caused me 8 years ago to miss out on a Thanksgiving meal. We were getting out of the hospital on Thanksgiving and we just didn't plan to be anywhere for the grand feast. It was a year with no pumpkin pie, no dressing, no grand family gathering. I thought I was prepared to miss out on the festivities, that I would be fine if I missed it this one time around. Much like we thought we were prepared to have two little boys in our life, I thought I was prepared to not have a big Thanksgiving celebration that year. And much like I was mistaken about my parental preparedness, I was not prepared for the lack of pie, cards, and family.

We so often approach things in life thinking we have it all under control. That we can handle whatever life throws at us, all on our own. Only to realize that there is no way to effectively handle life all on our own. We need others in our life. We need people to walk alongside us, we need Christ to walk alongside us. When we are struck with this reality, it is important to know that there are those that are willing to step up. The longer I am a pastor the more I see a world that is in desperate need for this reminder. To do life alone, is not a sign of strength but rather it is just silliness. To ask and accept help when it is needed is a sign of strength. God knew that we could not handle life on our own, He knew that we would need others. He knew it was going to take a village to raise my kids, especially Earl. 😊 Just as He knows that no matter who you are, you will need others, and so He created communities of followers that are willing to be those people.

I am so thankful for my church community that is always so willing to be there. That is willing to step up when someone is struggling to give a helping hand. I am thankful that I am serving a community that is on the lookout for new ways to continue to reach out, help out and walk alongside each other! Jesus says in the Gospel of John that He will not leave us orphaned; He gave us a community to ensure that is true. Let us reach out to the "orphans" this season!

Until Next Time,
Pastor Michelle
