

Supplier of the Year

This year Ed King, President of Aquaflow Pump & Supply Co. brought home the Supplier of the year award from the Nation Ground Water Association. The award was presented at Ground Water Week 2023 in Las Vegas.

The supplier of the year is described as an award to honor an individual's dedication to the ground water distribution channel. This includes a dedication to service, longevity and excellence, all of which describe Ed King.

With over 40 years in the industry and an unmatched dedication to our customers this recognition is so well deserved.

Aquaflow Pump & Supply Co.
